

PUBLIC SAFETY

TUESDAY

9:51 p.m. — Oregon State Police responded to the Umatilla port of entry for a belligerent and uncooperative semi driver pertaining to an inspection and violations. A state police sergeant assisted a motor carrier enforcement officer in issuing the driver inspection documents and a citation. According to state police, Earl Dean Allen A. Hellman, 26, of Jerome, Idaho, had false entries in his logbook that placed him out of service until 8:14 a.m. Wednesday.

However, Wednesday at 4:40 a.m., the port of entry discovered Hellman left in violation of the out-of-service requirement. State police also reported Hellman's whereabouts remain in question.

WEDNESDAY

2:16 a.m. — Hermiston police received a 911 report of an assault on the 1300 block of North First Street.

7:59 a.m. — An Irrigon resident on Washington Lane complained about the neighbor's dog coming on their property and chasing a steer and getting in the goat pasture. The caller said he fired a blank round to scare the dog, but it still was in the area. A Morrow County sheriff's deputy arrived and cited the dog's owner for keeping a dog as a public nuisance.

8:58 a.m. — A caller reported a small black dog stirred up other dogs at East May Street and Kirk Alley, Hepper. Once more, the Morrow County Sheriff's Office sent a deputy who cited the owner for keeping a dog as a public nuisance.

1:43 p.m. — A woman asked Hermiston police for information on how to get her husband to leave their home.

2:54 p.m. — A 911 caller reported a grass fire with one person present in a field at Switzler Avenue and North Fourth Street, Umatilla. Another call came in at 10:41 p.m. for a grass fire at the same location.

3:43 p.m. — A Stanfield resident on West Page Avenue reported a woman she knows took her cat, Buddy, and threatened to do harm to the pet.

8:34 p.m. — Law enforcement responded to Prairie Wood Apartments, 210 Klickitat St., Umatilla, for people screaming and yelling in the front parking lot.

R. Kelly charged with 11 new sex-related counts in Chicago

By MICHAEL TARM AND HERB MCCANN
Associated Press

CHICAGO — Prosecutors charged R&B singer R. Kelly on Thursday with 11 new sex-related counts involving one of the women who accused him of sexually abusing her when she was underage, including counts that carry a maximum sentence of 30 years in prison, making them the most serious he faces.

Cook County prosecutors charged the Grammy award-winning singer with four counts of aggravated criminal sexual assault, two counts of criminal sexual assault by force, two counts of aggravated criminal sexual abuse and three counts of aggravated criminal sexual abuse against a victim who was at least age 13 and under 17 at the time.

The four aggravated criminal sexual assault counts carry maximum terms of 30 years in prison. Kelly is due in court to hear the new charges on June 6.

Kelly was already facing 10 counts of aggravated sexual abuse involving four women over a 10-year period that started in the late 1990s. Three of the women were minors when the alleged abuse occurred.

The new charges pertain to a single victim. Prosecutors didn't specify in the filing if she is the same person as one of the original four accusers.

Kelly's defense attorney, Steve Greenberg, didn't immediately reply to requests for comment left by The Associated Press. The AP also couldn't reach Kelly for comment about the new charges.

Kelly pleaded not guilty to the original charges and denied any wrongdoing after his February arrest. He has been free since Feb. 25, when a suburban Chicago woman posted $100,000 bond, or 10% of the $1 million bond the judge set in his case.

According to the new court filing, the charges are from encounters that allegedly occurred between May 1, 2009 and Jan. 31, 2010.

Prosecutors allege that Kelly used force or threatened to do so to pressure the accuser into sex or to perform oral sex on him.
