OBITUARIES

Charles Dean Cain

Pendleton
May 29, 1929 — May 29, 2019

Charles Dean Cain of Pendleton, Oregon, was born on May 29, 1929, in Kingston, Arkansas, to Mack and Elsie (Hawthorn) Cain. He passed away on May 29, 2019, at the age of 90.

Cain

Charles grew up in Kingston, Arkansas. He attended Kingston schools, graduating in 1947 with perfect attendance.

In 1951, Charles entered the U.S. Army. He served as a corporal in the Korean War from 1951-1952. He remained as an Army Reservist until his honorable discharge in 1956.

In 1953, he met the love of his life, Sherril Cockburn. The couple married June 29, 1958, in Milton-Freewater, Oregon. They made their home in Pendleton, Oregon, where they resided for the past 61 years. It was here they raised their daughters, Brenda and Karen Sue.

Charles worked for Georgia Pacific/Louisiana Pacific lumber mills in Pilot Rock, Oregon, for over 30 years. After leaving the lumber industry, he went to work at the Round-Up Athletic Club until his retirement in 1994.

After retirement he could be found at "the office" south of town. Golfing at Pendleton Country Club became his day job. Charles also enjoyed gardening. He took great pride in his flower and vegetable gardens, in addition to his well-manicured lawns. When the weather didn't permit golfing or gardening, he enjoyed reading a good Louis L'Amour western or Hillerman mystery.

Family meant everything to Charles. He attended as many activities and events as he could — whether it was a ball field/court, rodeo arena or concert hall, Charles could be found cheering on his grandkids.

Charles is survived by wife of 61 years, Sherril; daughters Brenda (JP) Giesen and Karen Sue (Chad) Smith; grandchildren Justin Simpson, Matthew Simpson, Cain Smith, Dally Sue Smith, Calgary Smith and Caden Giesen; brother Bill (Ruth) Cain; sisters Thelma Garton, Shirley (Mack) Clark and Joetta (Lawrence) Bowen; sister-in-law Lou Cain; and many nieces, nephews and extended family members.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brother Roy Cain; and brother-in-law Herbert Garton.

Viewing will be held Thursday, June 6 from noon to 4:30 p.m. at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop. Funeral services will be held Friday, June 7 at 10 a.m. at the funeral home, with burial to follow at Skyview Memorial Park in Pendleton.

Arrangements are with Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop.

Memorial contributions may be made to The Umatilla County Historical Society Museum, P.O. Box 253, Pendleton, OR 97801, or to a charity of your choice.

S.F. 'Red' Beers

Pendleton
February 6, 1930 — May 30, 2019

Long-time Pilot Rock resident S.F. "Red" Beers passed away Thursday, May 30, 2019, at Willowbrook Terrace Care Facility in Pendleton, Oregon. Services will be held at the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Pendleton at 11 a.m. Wednesday, June 5, followed by a private family burial at Skyview.

Beers

He was born in old Milton, Oregon, to S.A. Beers and Sadie R Clough Beers on February 6, 1930. He was 89 years old.

He moved to Ukiah, Oregon, when he was 14 years old and worked on a small farm raising horses with John Mills. Ukiah is where he learned the logging business and how to drive. He attended schools in Pendleton and Ukiah.

He married Elnor (Sis) Rice in Milton-Freewater on October 24, 1952. They were married for 55 years prior to her death. He owned a small ranch on Nut Creek out of Pilot Rock for many years where he enjoyed raising registered quarter horses.

For most of his life he worked in the lumber business. He ran the de-barker at Harris Pine Mills in Pendleton during the 1950s, lived at Woods Camp on Camas Creek, and worked in the woods felling trees for a wide variety of logging outfits. He drove log truck for many years. In 1980 he purchased a brand new White Western Star log truck, and shortly thereafter bought a second one. He drove until he retired.

He enjoyed those trucks, and golf, very much.

Being in the mountains was the place he most loved to be. He was an avid and legendary hunter. Going deer and elk hunting were the highlights of the year for him.

Anytime he could go to the mountains he was happy. When he was a young man he camped by himself for days at a time and served as a Forest Service lookout in the tall towers.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his stepmother, Frieda; his wife, Sis; his youngest son, Jeff; grandson Nathan; and sisters Roma Rae Wagener and Anita Powers.

Survivors include his brother, Jack Beers of Pendleton; sister DeeDee Walker of Walla Walla; daughter HollyJo Beers of Athena; sons Lloyd (Ronda) Beers of Pendleton and Michael (Danita) Beers of Pilot Rock; former daughter-in-law Rosita Beers; 13 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandson.

Donations may be made c/o Burns Mortuary in Pendleton to Pilot Rock Little League or the Oregon Firearms Federation.

Burns Mortuary is in charge of arrangements. Sign the online guestbook at www.burnsmortuary.com.
