

Graduate Moanamarie Peterson gives a class prophecy.

Hermiston Schools superintendent Tricia Mooney straightens the shirt collar of Joshua Brown backstage before the ceremony

HERMISTON SENIORS WALK THE WALK

East Oregonian

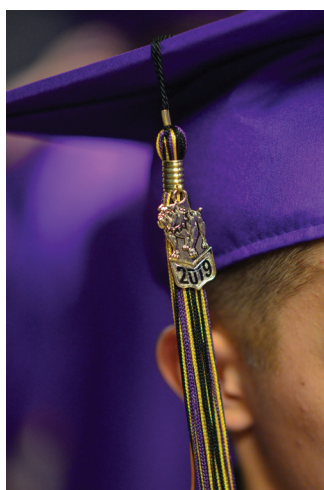

KENNEWICK, Wash. — Hermiston High School presented diplomas to 346 graduating students at the Toyota Center on Thursday evening. There are three valedictorians, nine military enlistees, and 19 honors students among the HHS class of 2019. Collectively, the graduates earned over $4.5 million in scholarships.

Hermiston graduates walk out onto the floor of the Toyota Center during their commencement ceremony on Thursday in Kennewick.

Graduate Naxely Jaime shakes hands with superintendent Tricia Mooney after receiving her diploma.

The 2019 Bulldogs tassel hangs from graduate René Cenicerós' mortar board.

A Hermiston graduate points toward the audience during the commencement ceremony in Kennewick.

Graduate Alyssa Perkins takes a selfie backstage before the start of the Hermiston High School commencement ceremony.

Staff photo by E.J. HARRIS