and the family is warned multiple times not to venture too far into the woods. When their beloved cat is struck and killed by a truck, Louis buries it behind a small cemetery in the woods, and is shocked when the cat returns alive the next day. But the cat is different, more aggressive, evil.
Another tragedy befalls the family, and Louis is faced with a terrible choice that will change everything.

Little

Jordan Sanders (Hall) was bullied as a child, but now she's a successful businesswoman, and she's become the bully. After a confrontation with a little girl, the girl wishes that Jordan was little, too, so she could show her how she deals with bullies. The next morning, Jordan wakes up as her 13-year-old self, and her assistant, April (Rae), must help her navigate life as a kid all over again. As Jordan begins to realize just how terrible she has been to those around her, she starts making changes that will benefit every-

After

As Tessa Young (Langford) begins her first year of college, her mother (Blair) worries that her new roommate will be a bad influence, but Tessa assures her that she is determined to focus only on her studies. After being pressured, she attends a party, where she meets the handsome and mysterious Hardin Scott (Fiennes Tiffin), whose interest in her only intensifies with every rebuff. As she begins to fall in love with Hardin, she alienates her family and friends, and soon discovers that all is not what it seems.
