Gilbert to fill arenas: Barclays Center is all set for Big3

By Ryan Guebert
TV Media

A number of changes were made in preparation for the third season of the Big3, which tipped off on June 22 — namely expanding the league from eight teams to 12. Adding more teams allows for more recognizable players and star power to be on the court and improves the quality of the competition. Tune in Sunday, July 14, and experience excitement of 3-on-3 basketball at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, New York, with live coverage on CBS.

New teams to the Big3 include the Aliens, Bivouac, Enemies and Triplets coached by Nate Archibald, Reggie Theus,

Rick Mahorn and WNBA legend Lisa Leslie, respectively. Josh Smith of the Bivouac and Gilbert Arenas of the Enemies are at the top of this list of new names on the Big3 roster this season.

At 33 years of age, Smith is yet to retire from professional basketball, but he last played in the NBA in 2017. He is young enough to have more success on basketball's biggest stage, and performing in the Big3 could prove to be the audition that lands him another NBA gig.

Arenas is known for being one of the most electrifying characters the NBA has ever seen on and off the court. After a number of controversial events and injuries, his NBA career ended when he, at the age of 30, signed with the Shanghai Sharks of the Chinese Basketball Association, where he played for one season. Now, at 37 years of age, this is Arenas' first return to professional basketball since the 2012-13 season. With his deep shooting range, Arenas is a threat at the four-point zones that are unique to the Big3. Having two-time NBA champion Lamar Odom for support in the paint, Arenas and the Enemies are an immediate championship contender.

Get live basketball action in the middle of the NBA off-season with a number of your favorite former NBA stars by tuning in for Big3 action on Sunday, July 14. Catch live coverage of the action at the Barclays Center on CBS.
