

PUBLIC SAFETY

TUESDAY

7:26 a.m. — Pendleton police received a report of a restraining order violation at a location on Southwest 45th Street. Officers at 2:04 p.m. would check on the welfare of person at that location after a subsequent 911 call about the violation.

10:47 a.m. — A Ukiah resident reported the dogs of someone he knows have been chasing his livestock.

2:12 p.m. — A caller on Frontage Road near Hermiston reported the theft of an air compressor and other items.

2:45 p.m. — An Irrigon mother told law enforcement her daughter harassed her via the phone.

2:48 p.m. — A 911 caller reported someone tied a dog to a table at McNary Beach but no one was with the dog since noon, and the dog had no food or water.

8:18 p.m. — Umatilla police received a 911 report of an assault at the Lamplighter Motel, 401 Sixth St.

10:30 p.m. — Pendleton medics and police responded to the Pendleton Market, 2101 S.E. Court Ave., for a male who reported he was bleeding from his ears.

11:46 p.m. — An irritated Irrigon caller on Southeast Utah Avenue reported a dark green GMC Yukon has its back door open and is blaring booming music. The caller said the vehicle and its driver have approximately 100 complaints because of the loud music, which keeps people awake at night. The caller added if the Morrow County Sheriff's Office doesn't catch this guy, one day he will. The sheriff's office responded and did not catch the guy.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Boardman police at about 2:20 a.m. responded to the Maple Crest Apartments, 700 Wilson Road S.W., on a report of a vehicle hitting parked vehicles. Police arrested Francisco Gomez, 35, of Boardman, for hit-and-run involving property and driving under the influence of intoxicants. Police also cited him for driving while suspended and driving uninsured.

Pendleton police arrested Wawane Jo Speedis, 38, of Pendleton, for felony probation violation, a state warrant, felony methamphetamine possession, delivery of meth and misdemeanor fleeing.

Umatilla police arrested Omar Ochoa, 24, of Hermiston, for driving under the influence of intoxicants.

Umatilla Tribal Police arrested Jason Arthur Butler, 46, of Pendleton, for misdemeanor assault and felony domestic abuse.

Hermiston police arrested Austin Lonnie Black, 25, of Hermiston, on a probation violation warrant, two counts of felon in possession of a firearm and one count of altering the identification number on a firearm. The gun possession charges are misdemeanors, the others are felonies.

Hermiston police were looking for Black after he ran from police and either tossed or dropped a gun that fired when it struck the ground. The bullet did not hit anyone.

Police caught Black around 10 p.m., according to Hermiston police Lt. Randy Studebaker, after an officer saw him throw a lit cigarette out the window of a car.

Paul Scott Shampine

College Place, Wash.
June 14, 1951 — June 21, 2019

Shampine

Paul Shampine passed away at home in College Place, Washington, on June 21, 2019, from complications of pancreatic cancer. He was 68 years old.

Paul was born in San Antonio, Texas, on June 14, 1951. He lived in Colorado Springs until age 9, then the family move back to San Antonio where he finished the rest of his schooling. He attended Texas A&M and graduated in recreation and park management. He loved the Aggies, and would proudly wear his Aggie gear everywhere.

Paul lived in Florida and Arkansas, working for the National Park Service. He and his first wife, Susan, then moved to Pasco, Wash., and both worked for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. They later divorced. Paul met Debra B. Hawkins while they both worked at the Mill Creek Project in Walla Walla, Wash. They married on August 15, 1992.

Paul and Debra had many interests and adventures. They enjoyed bicycling, exploring antique shops, driving their collector cars, motorcycling and watching/attending in blacksmithing, and set up a small forge in the shed behind their house.

Paul is survived by his spouse of 26 years, Debra Hawkins Shampine. He is also survived by his brother-in-law James Kramer, his nephew Mark Kramer (Jill) and his niece Laura Denison (Lucas). Paul was preceded in death by his father, Harven Shampine, his mother Bernice Shampine, and his sister Sylvia Ann Kramer.

Various pets kept them entertained and from being wealthy. Paul especially loved his favorite cat, Chester. Memorial contributions can be made to the Blue Mountain Humane Society, 7 E. George St., Walla Walla, WA 99362 and Pioneer Humane Society/PAWS at 517 S.E. Third St., Pendleton, OR 97801.

The flowers, cards, food, prayers and support from family and friends have been greatly appreciated. A special thank you to Walla Walla Community Hospice, the providers that cared for and helped Paul, Dr. Bruce Barga and his wonderful staff, and Debra's cousins, Pam Hawkins and Becca Hawkins Zollman.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Peace Lutheran Church, 210 N.W. Ninth St., Pendleton, Ore., at 1 p.m. on July 27, 2019. A dessert reception will be held afterwards.

Melva Marie (Stansbury) Knight

Nampa, Idaho
June 10, 1930 — July 5, 2019

Knight

Melva Marie (Stansbury) Knight of Nampa, Idaho, former longtime Hermiston, Oregon, resident, was born on June 10, 1930, in Dayton, Ohio, to parents Fred and Anna Marie (Fullmer) Stansbury. She died on July 5, 2019, in Boise, Idaho, at the age of 89 years.

Melva was raised and attended schools in Dayton, Ohio, and moved to Arizona as a teenager with her parents. She was united in marriage to Willis "Whitey" Knight on October 22, 1949, in Kingman, Arizona.

They moved to Hermiston, Oregon, in 1950, where they raised their family. Melva was a longtime member of the Hermiston Church of the Nazarene, where she served in numerous capacities alongside her husband. She also worked as a nurse assistant at Good Shepherd Hospital and served on the Ladies Auxiliary for a number of years. Melva moved to Idaho in 2008 to be near family, following the death of her husband.

To describe Melva in one word, it would be "welcoming." She was a "behind the scenes" worker with a heart of gold. Her goal in life was to make others comfortable and cared for and devoted her life to her family and church. She was a lover of nature, God's Word, and gospel music. Additionally, she was a prayer warrior and a firm believer in Christ and the place He was preparing for her.

She is survived by her sisters, Carol Pengelly and Joyce Martin, and children Dennis, Steve, Jacqueline (Sproul), and David Knight, as well as seven grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Melva was preceded in death by her parents, Fred and Anna Marie Stansbury, husband Willis "Whitey" Knight, grandson Joshua Knight, and daughter-in-law Janice Knight.

Ione High graduates awarded Maryan L. McElligott Memorial Scholarships

East Oregonian

Six Ione High School alumni have been named recipients of the 2019-20 Maryan L. McElligott Memorial Scholarship.

Rachel Holland, a senior studying biochemistry at Regis University in Colorado, and Maia Fuchs, also a senior studying Egyptology at University of Montana, both received $1,500 and were repeat awardees. Receiving $1,000 scholarships were Katelyn Bass, also a repeat awardee, a senior studying education at Eastern Oregon University; her brother Tanner Bass, studying electrical engineering at Portland Community College; Sonia Medina, a junior studying nursing at Western Oregon University; and Morgan Orem, a junior studying agro-business at Oregon State University.

The Maryan L. McElligott Memorial Scholarship fund has awarded scholarships to Ione High School alumni each year since 1997. The scholarship is open to all college undergraduates, with preference given to students in their sophomore year and above.

The fund was established in her memory after she lost her battle with cancer.

Maryan McElligott was an energetic community volunteer who was recognized in 1992 as the Morrow County Woman of the Year. She placed a high value on community involvement. She volunteered in the schools, the American Legion Auxiliary Ione Post 95, and was a 20-year 4-H leader. An avid baker, she was well-known for her cakes and taught cake-decorating classes through Blue Mountain Community College for a short time. Education was very important to her. Maryan and her husband, L.J. McElligott, raised eight children, all of whom graduated from Ione High School as well as college; five have received graduate degrees.

"I am pleased to see this scholarship is focused on second year and higher college students, and I would encourage students to apply every single year of one's college experience," said Monica Swanson, the scholarship committee member.

The scholarship committee is composed of Ione residents Monica Swanson, Linda LaRue and Anne Morter, as well as Matthew McElligott of North Powder and Vince McElligott, of Houston, Texas, two of Maryan's sons.

Scholarships are awarded to students who share and demonstrate Maryan's values, but may lack financial resources needed to pursue their college education. The following criteria are used to select scholarship recipients: high academic achievement; demonstrated character; community, family and school involvement; and financial need. The L.J. McElligott family initially set up the endowment fund in 1994, and it is administered by the Oregon Community Foundation.

The Maryan L. McElligott Memorial Scholarship fund makes annual awards to graduates of Ione High School who are enrolled or will be enrolled in a full-time undergraduate course of study at any accredited post-secondary institution, including out-of-state institutions. Applicants, including McElligott scholarship recipients, may reapply each year as long as they meet the eligibility requirements. All Ione Community Charter School graduates are encouraged to apply.

Applications are available through the Oregon Student Access Commission at <http://www.oregonstudentaid.gov/>
