BMCC student scores internship with symphony

East Oregonian

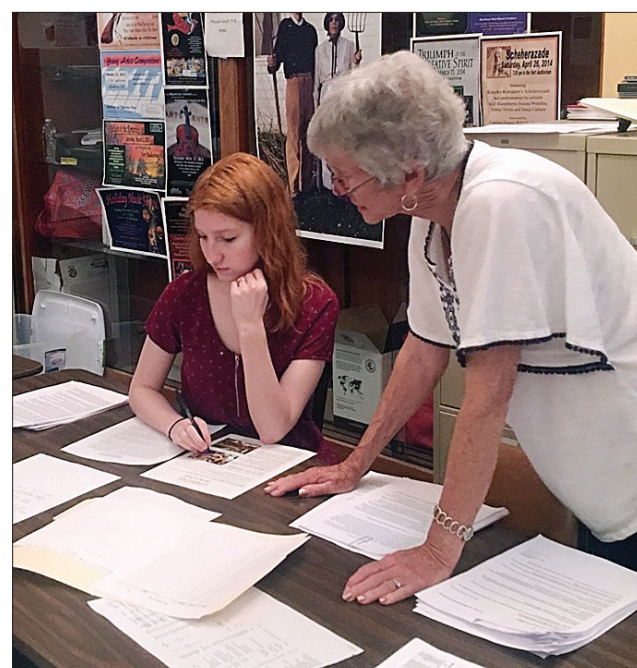

PENDLETON — Heidi Haug recently landed a paid internship with the Oregon East Symphony.

A student at Blue Mountain Community College, Haug is gaining valuable experience in non-profit arts administration as well as grant writing and development. A violinist and symphony strings teacher, Haug also is part of the teaching staff for the Summer Strings Music Camp.

The position is paid in part with a grant from Altrusa International of Pendleton.

In addition to creating the next generation of musicians, the symphony is excited to provide support for career development.

BOARDMAN — The local local Boy Scouts of America/Boardman Police Department Explorer Post benefited from a recent donation from the Boardman Tillamook Creamery.

The Boardman Police Department Explorer Post expressed appreciation for the generous donation of $1,000 in support of the local youth program. The money is being used to provide uniforms, equipment and sponsorship to the Oregon Annual Law Enforcement Challenge. Officer Cory Rosen said the group hopes to do well at the event, which is Aug. 1-4 at the Camp Rilea Armed Forces Training Facility at Warrenton.

Enjoying the dog days of summer

TOLLGATE — During a day trip to Jubilee Lake this past weekend, the Wiseman family of Pendleton saw everyone and their dog enjoying the nice weather while participating in outdoor fun.

Noemi Wiseman was especially delighted to see a young lady rowing a two-person raft with her dog. In addition to enjoying a picnic, the Wisemans hiked on trails around the lake and soaked in the summer sunshine.

Located in the Umatilla National Forest, Jubilee Lake offers camping and a day-use area, including fishing and swimming. It's located about 12 miles northeast of Tollgate.

There is a $3 vehicle fee per day. Summer camping fees range from $17-$24. For more information, search www.fs.usda.gov/recmain/umatilla/recreation.

Pet of the Week

Paco is a 5 yr old neutered chiweenie. He is loving and sweet, needs to be in a home with older couple or someone single. He does have some back issues that require his walks with a harness (does not seem to bother him, should watch him for signs of discomfort). Paco enjoys slow walks, car rides, lounging in the sun, and relaxing in your lap.
