Umatilla County Fair seeks open class entries

The creativity of local residents is showcased during the Umatilla County Fair.

People are invited to display open class exhibits, including everything from baked goods, sewing projects and hobby work to photography, fine arts and vegetables — and more.

To highlight the fair theme — "Strong Roots & Cowboy Boots!" — many of the departments have a special fair theme category. It provides people with an opportunity to interpret the theme through a project or entry.

While projects and entries aren't due yet, exhibitors must pre-register in order to be eligible for judging and fair premiums. In addition to displaying their talents, exhibitors are eligible to purchase one season pass for the discounted price of $20. The special pass can be purchased beginning Sunday, Aug. 4 at the fair office by providing the pink exhibitor's tag. The open class pre-registration deadline is Wednesday, July 24 by 5 p.m.

In addition to the creative arts, open class entries — which are not a part of 4-H or FFA — are available for beef, dairy, sheep, Jackpot Lamb, goats and a variety of small animals.

Registration forms are available at www.umatilla-countyfair.net or at the fair office, located at Eastern Oregon Trade and Event Center, 1705 Airport Road, Hermiston. Also, local libraries offer computer use and internet access.

The actual entries for most open class exhibits need to be dropped off Sunday, Aug. 4 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the fairgrounds at EOTEC. Livestock and small animals will be received Monday, Aug. 5 from 7 a.m. to noon or 5-8 p.m. And, Jackpot Lamb entries are to be brought in Thursday, Aug. 8 from 7-10 a.m.

Open class fair premiums will be paid Friday, Aug. 9 from 9:30 a.m. to noon and Sunday, Aug. 11 from 8 a.m. to noon at the fair office. After Aug. 11, unclaimed premiums under $10 will go into the fair's general fund. Unclaimed premiums over $10 will be mailed to the address provided at registration.

For more information, contact fair@umatilla-county.net, 541-567-6121, or stop by the fair office. It's open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., but is closed for lunch from noon to 1 p.m.

Stanfield class of '69 plans 50-year reunion

STANFIELD — There's still time to make plans to catch up with the Stanfield High School class of 1969 during their 50-year reunion.

Organizers for the event are finalizing plans and hope to hear from classmates who haven't confirmed with an RSVP. In addition, other Tigers are invited to join the class of 1969 for reunion activities.

The event kicks off Friday, Aug. 2 at 5:30 p.m. in the school's cafeteria. The meal will be catered by Delish Bistro. In addition to visiting and catching up, classmates Larry Simmons and Kelly Bissinger will serve as master of ceremonies. The cost is $25.

The following morning features a breakfast prepared by the Hermiston Rotary Club. It will be held Saturday, Aug. 3 at 9 a.m. at Bard Park, Stanfield. There is no set fee; people may make a donation to help offset costs.

In order to ensure there's enough food, those planning to attend either event are asked to RSVP by Friday, July 26. For more information or to register, call Gloria Rodriguez at 541-377-1353 or Larry Simmons at 541-561-5853.

James Joe 'Bones' Holady

Ukiah May 23, 1944 — May 20, 2019

James Joe "Bones" Holady, age 74, passed away at his home in Ukiah, Oregon, on May 20, 2019. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, July 20, 2019, at 2 p.m. in the Cultural Hall of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1151 N. Elizabeth St., Milton-Freewater, Ore.

Jim was born May 23, 1944, in La Grande, Oregon, to J.D. and Mae Rose Inman Holady. His growing up years were spent in Ukiah and Milton-Freewater, Oregon. He graduated from Ukiah High School in 1962. Jim later served in the United States Army as a heavy equipment operator and company clerk in Vietnam, ending his tour of duty there in 1968. He went to work in the logging and trucking industries in Oregon, Washington and Alaska for many years. Jim acquired a large collection of books and enjoyed reading history, military and western adventures. Most of the time, you would see a four-legged friend by his side. He had several dogs during his childhood and throughout his adult life.

Holady

Jim is survived by a daughter, Amber Bicondoa; a sister, MaryAnn McCarty; a brother, Ken Holady; three grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, his stepmother, Ruth Holady; brothers Keith, Wesley and Dave; sister Martha Holady; nephew Russell Placie; and three wives, Stephanie Harr, Patricia (Pat) Stiller Harper and Delores (Dee) Hurst Dooley.

Penelope K. (Reeves) Corrigan

San Diego, Calif. September 3, 1940 — May 1, 2019

Penelope K. (Reeves) Corrigan was born in Pendleton, Oregon, on September 3, 1940, to the late Jackson D. and Nadine H. (Rueber) Reeves. She was the oldest of five daughters and passed away on May 1, 2019, in San Diego, California.

Corrigan

Penny and her husband of 58 years, Eugene R. (Gene) Corrigan, met in Spokane, Washington, where she attended business school, and later Gene's career brought them to Portland, Oregon. Penny was a homemaker and secretary, using these skills to support her husband's career.

Penny had three children and was actively involved in their school athletic and music interests. She was a talented seamstress and her creative and artistic abilities were evident in her flair for fashion and interior design. She decorated her home beautifully, making it a warm and inviting place to be.

Family and friends could depend on Penny's caring support when they were going through difficult times, lovingly opening her home when there was a need. She enjoyed social gatherings and class reunions and she was known for her distinctly beautiful laugh. In her later years she was a cancer survivor, an avid reader, and most recently took great pleasure in watching cooking shows.

In 1989 Penny and Gene moved to the suburb of Tualatin, Oregon, and upon Gene's retirement in 2004 they moved to San Diego.

Penny grew to love San Diego for its diversity and became a member of First Lutheran Church. She was drawn to the loving congregation and the church's outreach programs showing compassion to those less fortunate and serving her church in several different capacities.

Penny passed peacefully surrounded by her loving husband Gene and their three children Brian Corrigan, Brenda (Darren) Padgett and Gretchen Lile, and grandson Ryan Lile. She is survived by her grandchildren Ryan Lile, Shane Lile, Logan Padgett and Kylie Padgett as well as her sisters Karen Hodgert, Susan Millro and Joselle Lee, and many nieces and nephews.

Penny was preceded in death by her parents, and cherished sister Judy Kinney.

A memorial service will be held at the Echo Cemetery, in Echo, Oregon, on Saturday, July 20 at 11:30 a.m., followed by a luncheon reception at Sno Road Winery, 111 W. Main St., Echo.

Donations may be made to Third Avenue Charitable Organization, Inc. (TACO), 1420 Third Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101.

OBITUARIES

Barbara Alice 'Barb' Harrison

Hermiston February 15, 1951 — May 31, 2019

Barbara Alice "Barb" Harrison, 68, peacefully left for her heavenly home on Friday, May 31, 2019, in the presence of her husband, Bill, and two daughters, Andra and Alyssa, at their home in Hermiston.

Barb was the second of four daughters born to Howard and Bernice Bungard on February 15, 1951, in Bremerton, Washington. Barb's childhood home was a gentleman's farm where she enjoyed horse riding and caring of their family's animals. From her childhood she came wonderful stories, like the horse her parents purchased with an unknown pregnancy, the scandal of raising chickens in the basement, and a heifer that gave rides and would eat peanut butter sandwiches.

Barb attended Central Kitsap High School graduating in 1969, furthering her education at Western Washington University in Bellingham. With degree in hand, she landed in Guam with a two-year teaching contract. Shortly after arriving on Guam, she found a loving church where she began to grow in her relationship with God.

While on Guam she met the love of her life Bill Harrison. Bill proposed to her on Guam's "Lover's Leap" and the two were married on New Year's Day 1974. The couple moved back to the Pacific Northwest where they started a family: Andra born in 1979, followed by Alyssa in 1985.

Barb, embracing the life of a wife and mother, became proficient in baking, canning, sewing, crafts, and gardening. She brought all her talents to the forefront with entries in the Umatilla County Fair where she was awarded Homemaker of the Year.

With Barb's passion for teaching young children, she primarily taught first grade spanning a 30-year career. She taught in Guam; in Paterson, Washington; and in Hermiston, Irrigon and Boardman, Oregon. She always tried to inspire her students to be kind and encouraged them to follow their dreams.

She relished family celebrations, trips to the ocean, walking on the boardwalks down by the marina and the sandy beaches of the Oregon Coast. Christmas was her favorite time of year, spending her time baking, decorating and drinking hot cocoa.

Barbara, preceded in death by her father Howard and mother Bernice, is survived by her husband Bill Harrison and their two daughters Andra Spencer and Alyssa Harrison; Andra's husband Mathew; four grandchildren: Illumination, Ember, Elijah and Elladaya; and Barb's three sisters, Janan Eppig, Patricia Coomes, and Cynthia Jaquay.

A celebration of life service will be held July 27, 2019, at New Hope Community Church by invitation.
