Show 'n' Shine revs up in Arlington

Earl Snell Park heats up with summer fun

ARLINGTON — The Arlington Community Chamber of Commerce is cranking up the fun this weekend at Earl Snell Park.

The Arlington Show 'n' Shine car show revs up Saturday with registration beginning at 9 a.m. The park is located off Interstate 84, Exit 137. There is no fee for spectators.

The cost for vehicle entry is $10 per car. The first 50 registered will receive a dash plaque and goodie bag. Over the years, the show has featured everything from antique and classic cars to motorcycles and even a few tractors. Nearly two dozen trophies will be awarded in a variety of categories at 3:15 p.m. With a charging station in town, Arlington even offers a special category for electric cars.

People are encouraged to enjoy a day in the shade along the Columbia River. In addition to the car show, the event features food and kids' activities. Also, new to this year's event is a three-on-three basketball tournament. Tipoff is at 1 p.m. on the basketball courts at the east side of the park.

St. Francis Mission Catholic Church will fire up the barbecue beginning at 11 a.m. And strawberry shortcake will be served up throughout the afternoon by the Methodist Church Ladies.

The family-friendly event also offers visitors a chance to cool down with floaties and toys for water play provided by the chamber. For added safety, lifeguards will be on duty in the lagoon area.

The day also features Hula Hoop contests and the annual Rubber Duck Regatta. For a chance to win, purchase rubber ducks at the Arlington Hardware, 200 Arlington Port Road. Marta Mikkalo of the Arlington chamber said they are available for "a buck a duck."

Also, a poker walk provides the winner with a $150 gift certificate to have something made by local leather artist Ron Wilson Custom Leather. The winner can work with Wilson to craft a purse, belt, headstall, reins or other leather creations.

BRIEFLY

Seniors plan picnic in the park

PENDLETON — All ages are encouraged to join the Pendleton Senior Center for a picnic Friday beginning at 11:30 a.m. at Community Park, 1000 S.W. 37th St., Pendleton.

Those attending are asked to bring lawn chairs and a potluck dish to share. The senior center will provide hamburgers, hot dogs, punch, ice cream and table service. There will also be games and prizes for all ages.

For more information, call the senior center at 541-276-7101.

Food pantry shows off new digs

PILOT ROCK — An open house at the Pilot Rock Food Pantry will feature a raffle and fundraiser.

The food bank moved to a new facility in March. The event is Saturday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at 222 S.W. Third St.

The food pantry obtained a grant through the Oregon Food Bank, said pantry director Teresa LaChapelle. The money provided them with the ability to purchase carts, air conditioners and shelving, which is an integral part of the operation.

"We are very proud of our facility and what we have to offer," LaChapelle said.

The pantry serves an average of about 45 families each month. LaChapelle said they are supported by the generosity of local businesses, individuals and local churches, who provide either money, food or other needed supplies.

For more information, contact LaChapelle at 541-443-3330 or blueeyed-teresa@yahoo.com.

Air museum salutes Korean War veterans

PENDLETON — The Pendleton Air Museum is hosting a special open house to coincide with National Korean War Veterans Armistice Day.

The free event is Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at 21 S.W. Emigrant Ave., Pendleton. People are invited to stop by for conversation, coffee and cookies with Korean War veterans Ken Garrett, Tom Tangney, Richard Allstott and Paul Gadaire, who will be on hand throughout the day.

In addition, museum visitors can learn about the historic connection between Pendleton and World War II, read vintage newspapers or view the memorial to area residents.

The Pendleton Air Museum is a nonprofit museum. Volunteers of all ages are invited to help keep the local history alive. For more information, contact 541-278-0141, pendletonairmuseum@gmail.com or visit www.pendletonairmuseum.org.
