Goals galore: L.A. Galaxy take on defending champions Atlanta United

By Ryan Guebert
TV Media

Week 22 of the 2019 MLS season starts with defending MLS Cup champion Atlanta United hosting the Los Angeles Galaxy at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. Tune in to Fox Saturday, Aug. 3, to catch Week 22 action between two teams chasing a high seeding in the playoffs.

At the beginning of the season, it was unclear how Atlanta would fare without star player Miguel Almirón, who joined Newcastle United of the English Premier League after the 2018 MLS season. Atlanta began the 2019 season uninspiringly slow, and did not get their first win until Week 7. The team went on a five-game winning streak starting in Week 9 and has performed much more stably ever since. Atlanta has performed well at Mercedes-Benz Stadium, having only lost once in their first 10 home games, with Josef Martínez netting eight goals in that span. Atlanta hopes to exploit those statistics at home against a Galaxy side that have been inconsistent on the road.

The Galaxy started the 2019 season in opposite form from Atlanta, losing only once in their first nine games, with star striker Zlatan Ibrahimović scoring an impressive eight goals in that span. They endured a four-game losing streak starting in Week 10 and have since gone back and forth with wins and losses. Ibrahimović's productivity slowed down in May and June but saw a resurgence in July when he started the month with a brace in a 2-0 win over Toronto FC. He hopes to kick off the month of August in similar fashion against Atlanta, and add to his tally in the race for his first MLS goalscoring title.

Currently, both Atlanta and the Galaxy are in comfortable positions to make the MLS Cup playoffs, which start in October. As long as players like Martínez and Ibrahimović maintain their goalscoring form, both teams could have deep playoff runs. Tune in Saturday, Aug. 3, to catch defending MLS Cup champion Atlanta United host the Los Angeles Galaxy at Mercedes-Benz Stadium with live coverage on Fox.
