BAKER CITY — The Powder River Music Review continues to round up a variety of entertainers on Sunday afternoons in Baker City.

The performances are held from 4-5:30 p.m. in the Powder River Pavilion at Geiser-Pollman Park, 1723 Madison St. There is no set admission fee but to help support the summer series, people are encouraged to make a donation. Those who give $5 receive a raffle ticket for a door prize.

The July 28 concert features the Seymour Baker Band. On the last leg of an Oregon Summer Tour, the Portland-based group plays acoustic Americana, blues, rock and folk. Their energetic performances are said to feature a combination of intricate guitar interplay, infectious rhythms and “silky smooth vocal harmonies.”

Also, during the July 28 event, those in attendance can enter a raffle drawing for a Christmas in July package. In addition, there will be a drawing for wine basket, which includes two wine tastings at Copper Belt Wines, two engraved wine glasses by Able Engraving and a bottle of wine.

During the Aug. 4 show, Cadence Beyond will play. The trio juggles a variety of instruments and styles. Calling themselves a “musical mutt,” the group plays an eclectic mix of original material, progressive rock, classic rock, country, folk and a little jazz. The group has been playing regularly at the Geiser Grand Hotel in Baker City.

Bringing their high energy to the stage on Aug. 11 is Phoenix Duo. Based in Salem, award-winning songwriters Tim and Kathy Crosby have collaborated on six albums. They are known in the bluegrass world as half of the quartet Kathy Boyd & Phoenix Rising.

A regional horn band featuring musicians based in Hermiston, Pendleton and beyond will perform Aug. 18. Brass Fire will sizzle with the sound of saxophones, trumpets, trombone, piano, bass, guitar and drums. In addition, the entire band lights up with vocal renderings.

Offering up music made popular by a variety of acts, be prepared to hear everything from Chicago and Elvis to Santana and Earth Wind & Fire. In addition, the group can fire up tunes from the Big Band Era as well as blues, soul and rock from the 1970s and 1980s.

History comes alive at Walla Walla museum

WALLA WALLA — A pair of living history presentations at Fort Walla Walla Museum will feature a pioneer missionary and Washington Territory's first governor.

Whitman College Professor Rogers Miles will portray the Rev. Cushing Eells on Saturday, Aug. 3 and Ron Klicker will portray Gov. Isaac Stevens on Sunday, August 4. Both presentations start at 2 p.m. in the museum's Pioneer Village, located at 755 Myra Road, Walla Walla.

Eells and his wife, Myra, arrived in 1838 and settled among the Spokane Indians until the massacre at Whitman Mission in 1847. They moved to the Willamette Valley, later returning to the Walla Walla Valley in 1859 to reclaim the mission grounds at Waiilatpu. He founded Whitman Seminary, which later became Whitman College.

Stevens, who served from 1853-57, was a controversial figure. Historian Kent Richards said Stevens was most often the center of controversy and that people either loved or hated him. During his tenure as territorial governor, he believed he could address problems between white settlers and the Indian people by negotiating treaties.

Fort Walla Walla Museum is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. General admission is $9, students and seniors pay $8 and it's free for children under 6. For more information, call 509-525-7703 or visit www.fwwm.org.

Oldies Night features 'No Filter'

MILTON-FREEWATER — If you can't get no "Satisfaction" head to the upcoming Oldies Night in Milton-Freewater for hits from the Rolling Stones.

The British group has enjoyed a long and successful career, including 60 chart singles on the Billboard Hot 100 and four dozen hit albums. BJ the DJ will play many of their hit songs from the 1960s, 1970s and 1980s Saturday, Aug. 3 from 7-10 p.m. The free event will take place at Wesley United Methodist Church, 816 S. Main St., Milton-Freewater. For those who can't get enough of the Stones, come early as BJ the DJ will start spinning tunes at 6 p.m.

The Stones' first number one hit in America — their fourth in Great Britain — was "(I Can't Get No) Satisfaction." It topped the Billboard chart for four weeks in July 1965 and was the biggest hit single in the U.S. that year. While they've experienced some controversy over the years, including censorship of their 1967 hit "Let's Spend the Night Together" on "The Ed Sullivan Show," they have endured for nearly 60 years. The Rolling Stones are currently on the road in the U.S. with their No Filter Tour.
