

PUBLIC SAFETY

MONDAY

6:58 a.m. — The Morrow County Sheriff's Office was called to a home on Wagon Wheel Loop, Irrigon, after a woman ran to the neighbor's house saying she needed help and a police officer. A deputy and Umatilla police officer responded, and two people were advised to give each other some space and call again if things escalated.

8:09 a.m. — A Umatilla resident on Willamette Avenue reported a man was standing in front of the neighbor's place, making a scene and screaming and yelling profanities.

8:40 a.m. — A woman called the Hermiston Police Department to complain that two motor homes have been parked on Northeast Misty Drive, one for over two weeks. She said they are obstructing the view for cars.

8:45 a.m. — A burglary occurred on Southeast 11th Street in Pendleton.

10:16 a.m. — Pendleton police responded to four dog complaints from 10:16 a.m. to 11:48 a.m.

10:43 a.m. — Stanfield police checked multiple locations for code enforcement issues ranging from noxious and tall weeds to piles of garbage to not removing yard debris.

11:03 a.m. — A resident on the 53700 block of West Ferndale Road, Milton-Freewater, reported a controlled burn caught the side of the "little ole garage" on fire.

12:55 p.m. — A resident of East Main Street, lone, called the Morrow County Sheriff's Office to report her neighbor's dog has been getting into her yard, and attacked a neighbor over the weekend who was taking care of the caller's property.

1:41 p.m. — A patron of the Irrigon Shell Station, 300 E. Highway 730, complained to a Morrow County deputy that a gas attendant dropped his gas cap onto his car and when the caller tried to ask him to be more careful, he and the attendant traded obscene language. The caller just wanted law enforcement to know about the incident in case the attendant called to complain.

3:12 p.m. — The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report of a burglary at Villadom Mobile Home Park, 53785 W. Crockett Road, Milton-Freewater.

3:45 p.m. — A caller at Heppner Market Fresh, 238 N. Main St., reported to the Morrow County Sheriff's Office a heavily intoxicated man was in the store, but left on foot. About an hour later, another caller reported an intoxicated man was at the bottom of the hill at Northwest Water and Jones streets in Heppner, and asked for a welfare check. The deputy gave the man a ride home.

4:33 p.m. — A tan Honda drove into Blue Mountain Medical Home Supply on Southwest 20th Street in Pendleton.

4:49 p.m. — A caller in Milton-Freewater reported a "thug" hangs out at the camp near Safeway and also at Sixth Avenue and Ward Street. The caller said the man has a Glock 9 handgun, knives and a bag of fetanyl.

6:31 p.m. — An intoxicated man "yelling at the top of his lungs and causing a ruckus" near Miller & Sons, 235 W. Linden Way, Heppner, prompted a call to the Morrow County Sheriff's Office.

11:14 p.m. — A resident of Mountain Glen Apartments, N.E. Pioneer Drive, Heppner, called the Morrow County Sheriff's Office to report minors were drinking alcohol and throwing up over the balcony. The caller was concerned they would be driving around later. Deputies issued citations to three teens for minor in possession of alcohol.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Cassandra Darlene Ross, 29, of Pendleton, for driving under the influence of intoxicants (alcohol), misdemeanors of possession of methamphetamine and felon in possession of a weapon, and on a felony parole/LSA violation.

OBITUARIES

Margaret Ilene (Ober) Green

Pendleton
October 20, 1935 — August 17, 2019

Service for Margaret will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, August 24, 2019, at the Peace Lutheran Church in Pendleton, Oregon.

Margaret was born October 20, 1935, in Hermiston, Oregon, to parents Fred and Sophie (Enbysk) Ober. She was raised in Pendleton and graduated from Pendleton High School in 1953. She received an Associate Degree from Eastern Oregon State College. While there she was a member of Alpha Pi Epsilon. She was elected president of that club for the following year.

On May 21, 1955, she married Douglas E. Green of Pendleton. They lived in Pilot Rock, Ore., for 20 years and then moved back to Pendleton.

Margaret enjoyed needlepoint, playing the piano, many crafts, drying flowers from Doug's garden and making arrangements. She also fished, hunted and traveled with Doug. She was an ardent collector of Pink Depression glass. She chaired many fundraising events in Pilot Rock. She was very active in Beta Sigma Phi for 55 years. She was president of Pendleton Travel Club. Margaret loved to entertain.

Margaret worked for the U.S. Postal Service in Pendleton for 30 years, retiring in 1992. She was a clerk stenographer at Pendleton Sectional Center before becoming personnel assistant for 58 post offices in the area and finally postmaster at Stanfield, Ore., for 10 years. She was also a civil service examiner and a Women's Equal Employment coordinator. She received many awards from the district and locally.

She was a lifelong member of Peace Lutheran Church. She was very active through school, where she taught Sunday School, sang in the choir, was president of Luther League and a delegate to Pacific Lutheran College. She was a lifelong member of the Finnish Apostolic Lutheran Church near Helix, Ore. She was on the board of directors for this church, which her great-grandfather, Peter Enbysk, helped found in June 21, 1986.

She is survived by her husband, Douglas E. Green; daughters Beverly Green and Linda Barnes, husband Douglas; son Gary Green, wife Lisa; five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are with Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop. Share online condolences with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com.

Residents of McKay Creek Estates celebrate all things western leading up to the 2016 Pendleton Round-Up. The public is invited to Thursday's McKay Creek Estates Senior Rodeo, which includes a barbecue dinner at the assisted living facility in Pendleton.

McKay Creek Estates rounds up fun with celebration

PENDLETON — A dinner and rodeo celebration event is planned at McKay Creek Estates.

The public is invited to join the fun, which features a variety of activities, including a miniature pony exhibit, senior-friendly rodeo games, live music and a barbecue meal. The McKay Creek Estates Senior Rodeo is Thursday beginning at 5 p.m. at the assisted living facility, 1601 Southgate Place, Pendleton. The Pendleton Round-Up court, the Happy Canyon princesses and Happy Canyon can-can dancers will be in attendance and host a meet-and-greet.

The McKay Creek Estates Senior Rodeo is $12 for adults, $5 for children 6 and older and free for kids under 5. Those in attendance can enter to win door prizes and a raffle with proceeds going toward the Walk to End Alzheimer's. For more information or to RSVP, call 541-276-1987.

Peterson dreams up creative artwork

HERMISTON — Kristen Peterson, an avid do-it-yourself crafter, designs and makes dream catchers.

Utilizing customized themes, teams, colors, characters or other ideas, Peterson often creates special dream catchers for others. A display featuring her work is available for view during the month of August at the Hermiston Public Library, 235 E. Gladys Ave.

The library is open Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Friday/Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information, call 541-567-2882 or visit www.hermistonlibrary.us.

Class highlights sexuality, capacity to consent

MISSION — A class designed to assist those who provide care to aging Oregonians will highlight sensitive care topics surrounding sexuality.

The free session will address the legal definition of capacity to consent for older adults living in long-term care settings. A professional instructor will discuss people's rights and provide information to help evaluate guidelines in care settings.

"Sexuality and Capacity to Consent in the Non-Dementia Adult Population" is Tuesday, Aug. 27 from 12:30-5 p.m. at Wildhorse Resort & Casino, located off Interstate 84 at Exit 216, Mission. Presented by Oregon Care Partners, the class is designed for individuals that provide care for an aging family member or loved one, as well as those who work in professional caregiver settings, public safety or social work.

For more information, to register for the free class or view other resources, visit www.oregoncarepartners.com. For questions, contact 1-800-930-6851 or info@oregoncarepartners.com.
