Anderson and Avery Treadwell. The Bulldogs never trailed again. A big serving series by Combes gave Hermiston an 18-13 lead, and Ver-trees added three points for a 24-17 lead. Dowdy had the final kill for the win. "For us, it takes a while to get going," Dyck said. "But when we do, we can focus on our fundamentals and do what we do." Courtney West added 14 assists for the Bulldogs, while Anderson had five kills and three blocks. Maddox had five kills, and Baker two blocks. For the Suns, Nicole Parker had five kills, three blocks and nine digs, while Jayden Smith added four kills and three blocks. Jordann Missett had 11 assists, and Staybrook three kills and five digs. "I'm extremely proud of the girls and how much they have grown since Day 1," Southridge coach Emily Otto said. "They are really coachable, and they work their tails off. They are very much about team."

Pendleton's Sami Spriet (9) sets the ball during the first set against the Ravens. The Ridgeview Ravens defeated the Pendleton Buckaroos in three sets at Pendleton High School on Thursday night.

points on the board to open the next set and quickly turned it into an 8-4 advantage. A three-point Pendleton rally followed by an error from Ravens sophomore outside hitter Sadie Green tied the score at 8-8. Wilson and sophomore outside hitter Sauren Garton combined for a three-point streak that helped the Bucks to a 13-12 lead, which the team soon broadened to 16-13, forcing a Ravens timeout. "Pendleton always plays a really good match against us," Ridgeview coach Randi Viggiano said. "We love playing them because we always know we're going to get a good game." A Pendleton error tied the score at 18-18, but senior outside hitter Zoe Jones notched a kill that gave the Bucks their set's final lead. Two more Pendleton errors later in the set gave the Ravens another win. The Ravens grabbed two 10-point leads in the opening half of the final contest and took a 21-7 lead off of junior middle blocker Brooklyn Dechent's kill. Wilson returned with another kill that helped the Bucks pull within nine points at 22-13, but Ravens senior outside hitter Rylee Troutman eventually got the match point. "Everything just went quiet," Lapp said of the third set. "I'm not sure if it was because senior night was happening and the girls were thinking, 'this is it,' but Ridgeview just keeps getting better and better every year. I wish them the best of luck as the top team in the league." The Bucks' trip to districts their next weekend will be their first since 2017. It was the final home match for seniors Spriet, Jones, Brooklyn Lunny and Carissa Cooley. "I'm really happy with the way we played tonight," Spriet said. "I wish we would have ended with a win, but we stuck with (Ridgeview), and I wouldn't have it any other way."

RIVERSIDE 4, FOUR RIVERS 0 — Neftali and Marisol Pacheco each netted two goals as Riverside went on the road and defeated Four Rivers 4-0 in EOL play. Pirates coach Carlos Velasco was pleased with how his team played, as Riverside jumped out to a 3-0 lead at the half and kept control of the possession in the second. The win is a nice bounce-back for Riverside (9-2-2, 5-0-1 EOL), which had its six-game win streak snapped in a draw against Umatilla last weekend. Now, the Pirates prepare for a home matchup with Nyssa on Saturday. PENDLETON 8, CROOK COUNTY 0 — After "taking a couple on the chin" this season, Pilot Rock/Nixyaawii's Logan Weinke (12) just misses an interception during the first quarter of Thursday's game against Powder Valley.

as Pendleton coach Paul Parker put it, the Buckaroos broke through with a complete performance Thursday, shutting out Crook County on the road 8-0. "Our offense was just hitting on all cylinders tonight," Parker said. "It's a coaching win. It's a players' win. They've done such a good job of keeping their chins up this year and playing hard." Reily Lovercheck led Pendleton with three goals and her sister, Kelsey Lovercheck, added another two. Addison Bonzani, Perla Ortega and Ashlynn Madril also each tallied a goal. On the other end, Parker highlighted the play of freshman defensive back Melanie Castanea. Pendleton (2-10, 2-6 IC) returns home for a meeting with Hood River Valley on Tuesday.

TIGERS, PIONEERS TOP "FUN" COUNTRY MEET — Weston-McEwen freshman Alex McIntyre had the fastest run in the boys 5K race at 18:54.0, but Stanfield/Echo escaped with the team win with 45 points on Thursday's "Fun" Country meet. Tigers senior Rafael Orozco placed second at 19:03.50, edging past McLoughlin senior Bryan Abrego, who finished at 19:08.30. Riverside freshman Matthew Hammond placed fourth with a time of 20:06.60. Riverside claimed second place in the team scores at 45, followed by Mac-Hi at 60 and Nixyaawii at 64. Mac-Hi senior Mekenna Simpson placed first in the girls' race at 22:47.30, followed by Stanfield/Echo junior Zora Gehrke (23:03.60) and Helix junior Ryann Stahancyk (23:12.00). The Pioneers topped the team standings with 35 points, followed by Nixyaawii at 41 and the Tigers at 44.

(20:54.32) among the Bulldogs, with Julie Joyce fourth (22:11.85) and Ashley Treadwell fifth (22:20.60). "Alexia beat Kamiakin's No. 4, which she has never done," Hermiston coach Troy Blackburn said. "We have to work on our depth. We bring back all these girls, and we need to get in more training." Greg Anderson was the top Hermiston boys runner, finishing 10th behind seven Kamiakin runners and two from Kennewick. Anderson ran a 17:04.84, more than a minute off his personal best. "I was a little disappointed in my time, but the goal of the meet was strategy," Anderson said. "We wanted to finish more together and be one of the top two teams. Kamiakin is ranked No. 9 in the nation.

Their team is so deep." The Kamiakin boys took the top five spots, winning the team title with the minimum of 15 points. Southridge was second with 72, while Hermiston was third with 76. Kamiakin sophomore Isaac Teeple won the race in a time of 15:53.94, with teammate Stanford Smith right on his heels at 15:55.10. Rounding out the top five for the Bulldogs were Jackson Shaver (12th, 17:30.23), Logan Springstead (14th, 17:39.12), Pedro Pacheco (18th, 18:04.14) and Adrian Delgado (22nd, 18:17.76). The MCC/Greater Spokane League District 8 Championships are Nov. 2 at Wandermere Golf Course in Spokane. The top two teams and top 14 runners in each division will advance to the state meet.
