HALLOWEEN GUIDE | FOOD

Spooky Treats

When it comes to adding a little creativity to your Halloween party treats, just think orange. A little color goes a long way and takes your dessert game to the next spooky level.

Your guests will love your themed treats as you make your party one to remember. Here are a few ideas to kickstart your Halloween goody plans.

CHOCOLATE PUMPKIN CAKE

Give your cake an orange and black twist for Halloween. Start by baking a plain chocolate cake and cutting it into layers. Next, add orange and black icing between the sheets for a layered, colorful — and not to mention delicious — dessert. You can likely find these themed icing options at your local grocer. If not, find white icing and add food coloring.

JACK-O'-LANTERN FLOATS

Find some orange soda to put a Halloween spin on the traditional float. All you'll need are vanilla ice cream, orange soda and some festive plastic cups.

Pour a small amount of soda into the bottom of each cup.
Add a scoop of vanilla ice cream on top.
Pour more orange soda over the ice cream.
Enjoy!

DIRT & WORMS

Try to find orange worms to give it a Halloween flair, or add orange chocolate candies into the middle of the dessert for some crunch.

Here's what you'll need for this quick, easy recipe:

- 12 chocolate cream-filled sandwich cookies
- 1 package instant chocolate pudding mix
- 2 cups milk
- 1 package gummy worms candy

First, crush the chocolate sandwich cookies into crumbs. Next, whisk together the chocolate pudding mix with the milk in a bowl. Sprinkle about half of the crushed sandwich cookie crumbs into the bottom of a serving bowl and spoon the chocolate pudding over the crumbs.

Then top with the rest of the chocolate cookie crumbs to make the dessert look like dirt. Poke the gummy worms halfway into the dirt. Refrigerate and serve for a fun, messy dessert.
