HALLOWEEN GUIDE | EVENTS

The Perfect Halloween Party

When the weather begins to cool, the fall party season heats up! From the food to the festivities, there are many ways to customize your Halloween shindig. Use a little creative thinking to throw your best party yet.

Here are some ideas to set your party apart from the rest.

COSTUME TROPHIES

What Halloween party would be complete without a costume party? Urge your guests to dress up in their spookiest outfits. Or come up with a theme to give your guests some direction.

Pass out awards for all sorts of costume divisions, including cutest costume, scariest costume or funniest costume. And instead of simply handing out bragging rights, let your guests compete for actual prizes. Affix a plastic skeleton to a wood base and spray them gold for the perfect little spooky costume trophy. Give the kiddos candy-filled gift bags for their efforts so no one goes home empty handed.

PUMPKIN VASES

Looking for a great way to outfit your home with Halloween-focused decorations? Look no further than our favorite fall item, the pumpkin.

Transform miniature pumpkins into perfect vases for mums and dahlias. Simply chop the top off the pumpkin and place a hidden vase inside. Fill the vase with water and your favorite flowers to make this pretty pumpkin creation. Pink and purple flowers pop out of a white gourd vase with vibrant colors. If you're using an orange pumpkin vase, think complementary colors to give it more depth.

FUN GAMES

It's easy to give your favorite party games a Halloween makeover. Get creative when putting together your collection of activities.

Try pin the spider by taping up a large photo or poster of a spiderweb. Blindfold your guests and give them small paper spiders with double-sided tape to stick on the

Have your guests bob for apples and then let them decorate their own delicacy at your caramel apple bar, complete with sprinkles, chocolate fudge and other delicious items.
