Oregon State Police officers speak with Jerry Fulleylove, 62, of Pendleton, following a crash in which a motorhome heading into town crashed into a utility pole before coming to a stop in the yard of a house at the intersection of Highway 11 and Northeast Lindell Lane in Pendleton.

MONDAY

9:21 a.m. — The Morrow County Sheriff’s Office school resource officer received information about a suspicious male watching a home in Boardman. The situation is under investigation.

9:27 a.m. — A male in Pendleton asked to speak to police about someone stalking him and taking photos.

10:08 a.m. — A caller complained about a Hermiston business operating without a business license. He said he spoke with the Oregon Department of Justice and now needs to talk to police. He said he bought a vehicle from the business, then found out it had no license.

10:30 a.m. — Pilot Rock police dealt with graffiti on West Main Street.

11:51 a.m. — Hermiston police received a tip about a possible drug house and individuals parole and probation officers are looking for.

2:17 p.m. — Pendleton police responded to Homestead Youth & Family Services, 816 S.E. 15th St., on a complaint about criminal mischief, and handed out a citation.

2:42 p.m. — A woman called 911 and reported she was on Highway 730 near Umatilla where a guy in a semitrailer on the side of the road threatened her.

4:18 p.m. — A Heppner resident asked to talk to a deputy about his missing shovel.

4:46 p.m. — The Umatilla County Sheriff’s Office responded to a report of a burglary on the 83900 block of Winesap Road, Milton-Freewater.

8:43 p.m. — Umatilla police responded to Sunset Trailer Court, 900 Umatilla River Road, for a 911 call reporting an assault.

10:01 p.m. — Boardman police responded to Port View Apartments, 300 N.E. Columbia Ave., on a report of a resident yelling, screaming and trying to provoke a neighbor. Police arrested a man for two counts of disorderly conduct, a misdemeanor offense.

10:46 p.m. — Boardman police and the Morrow County Sheriff’s Office responded to Columbia View Apartments, 100 N.W. Columbia Ave., Boardman, after a male reported his girlfriend was “trashing” his things and he wanted to press charges. They two were separated at the moment, the caller said, but the fight was physical.

Law enforcement found the couple argued but had not gotten into fistcuffs.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•The crash of a motorhome on the outskirts of Pendleton led to an arrest for intoxicated driving.

Oregon State Police at about 12:40 p.m. responded to Highway 11 near Northeast Lindell Lane at the east end of the city limits where a motorhome heading into town crashed into a utility pole and a private fence. Medical staff at the scene found the driver, Jerry Alvin Fullylove, 62, Pendleton, was not injured. State police put him through a sobriety test, and he did not pass.

Police arrested Fulleylove for DUII (controlled substances), reckless driving and three counts of first-degree criminal mischief.

•Umatilla County Sheriff’s Office arrested Yair Alexander Andrade-Duarte, 18, of Hermiston, for unauthorized use of vehicle.

•Oregon State Police arrested Robert Dale Sims, 28, of Longview, Washington, for DUII (alcohol).

Helen Arlt Miller

Athena
August 29, 1927 — October 25, 2019

Born August 29, 1927, in Yonkers, New York, to Helen Eagle and Otto Edward Arlt. Graduated Eastern High School for girls in Baltimore, Maryland, in 1945. Died October 25, 2019, at the age of 92, at Deaconess Hospital in Spokane, Washington, with her family gathered around her.

Helen came to Athena in November 15, 1946. She met her sweetheart, George L. “Bud” Miller, and they were married on March 27, 1947. She is survived by her children: Pattie (Cass) Vanderwiele of Baker City, Oregon; Raymond (Susan, deceased) Miller of Athena, Oregon; Peggie (Tom) Vandenberg of Touchet, Washington; Barbara Anne (Keith) Wilbur of Dayton, Washington; and Leon Jay (Donna) Miller of Eugene, Oregon; four great-grandchildren; and nine grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her two brothers, Edward and George Arlt, and her grandson, Sean A. Vandenberg.

She cherished her role as a housewife, but she was involved in so much more. Among her many volunteer and part-time jobs: she was the lifeguard at the city pool; an EMT with the fire department; the cook for Senior Citizens for eight years, and a volunteer helper for five more. She also held many positions within the community: She was on the United Way Board; chaired the cancer drive in Athena; and served on the library board for five years. She worked extensively with the Chamber of Commerce, and was pPresident in 1995-97, secretary for almost 10 years, and treasurer 1998-2000.

She served on the Planning Commission, including the new addition for the park in 1991. She was involved in Campfire, Cub Scouts, the PTA, and a member of Home Extension for 44-plus years. She was also a Memorial Hall Board member in 2005 in Weston, Oregon. It was no surprise to anyone that she was honored as Citizen of the Year in 1987.

The Caledonian Games held a special place in her heart and she was involved with the games from 1975 forward. She was co-chief-tain of Caledonian Games in 1987; pre-games ads chairperson, and treasurer. She loved to dress up as a clown for the children’s story time. Helen was truly a recognizable presence in Bud’s old bibbed overalls and a 100-year-old derby hat that belonged to Bud’s father Leon Jay Miller. She was even asked to perform for schools and parades.

She was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, which she held very near and dear to her. An integral part of the church, she was CCD teacher; member of both the Sacred Heart Altar Society and parish council; a lecturer during mass; a choir member; active in church sacristy and hall use; and a chairman of teachers for 30 years.

Helen loved to sing. Not only was she a distinguishable voice in church, she also sang second soprano in “Sisters of Harmony.” She sang second alto with both the Oregon East Symphony Chorale and the Inland Northwest Musicians.

Helen’s list of interests was wide and varied. She loved gardening, and supplied her beautiful flowers for church services and other occasions. She was well-known as a baker and produced huge quantities of her breads, cookies, and of course her delicious cinnamon buns. She was a gifted quilter, especially picture quilts, and was a member of the Quilt Bats for many years. She was a prolific letter writer, and never forgot a birthday or anniversary. Books, however, were a particular passion. She kept a list of the titles she had read and, at the last count, she had read 13,442.

Although leaving her home of 70 years, in 2017, was very difficult for Helen, she found a comfortable home at the Washington Odd Fellows. She enjoyed the many activities, and was loved and will be missed by many ... and all.

Recitation of the Holy Rosary will be Thursday, October 31, 2019, at 7 p.m. at Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home, 902 S. Main, Milton-Freewater, OR 97862. Mass of Christian Burial will be Friday, November 1, 2019, at 2 p.m. at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Fifth and College streets, Athena, OR 97813, with vault interment to follow at the Athena Cemetery.

Visitation will be on Thursday, October 31, 2019, from 5-9 p.m. at Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers she would request that donations be made to the Athena Public Library fund, Weston/McEwen scholarship fund, Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Athena, Christian Aid in Walla Walla, or a favorite charity of your choice.

Phyllis Schuening

Helix
March 26, 1931 — October 29, 2019

Phyllis Schuening was born on March 26, 1931, to Ivan and Marguerite Richardson. She left this world on October 29, 2019, to join the love of her life, Harry Schuening.

Phyllis met Harry when she was an usher at the Rivoli Theater. When she was 16 and he was 17, they eloped to Idaho and then made their home in Helix. They enjoyed 66 years of marriage before Harry passed in 2014.

Phyllis spent most of her life as a housewife and mother. She and Harry raised four daughters. When Phyllis was in her 40s, and all the girls were in school, she returned to school herself and received her GED. When the girls all left home, she decided to find a job to keep her busy. She became one of the cooks for the Helix School District for several years and also clerked at Sunshine Hallmark.

Phyllis enjoyed her grandkids, and watching them grow up was such a pleasure to her. She spent many hours at the Helix pool watching swim lessons, and always kept her cookie jar full for them.

She was the mayor for the city of Helix, where she was instrumental in the building of the city’s water tower.

She was also a member of the Helix Community Church, Women’s Club, and JC Club.

Phyllis was preceded in death by her husband Harry, her parents, and her sister, Joyce DeMessemaker. She is survived by her four daughters: Leslie Walborn (Dave), Terrie Rickman (Jess), Kim Ayala (George), and Tammie Parker (Larry); six grandchildren: Michael, Michele, Christopher, Brian, Nick and Jeremy; 12 great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank the staff of both Juniper House and Suttle Care for their kindness and caring during her time at their facilities.

A private family graveside service will be held at the Helix Cemetery on November 2, 2019, at 12 p.m. A gathering for family and friends will be held at 2 p.m. at the home of Larry and Tammie Parker in Helix.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations in Phyllis’s memory to the Helix Scholarship Fund or the Helix Community Church.

Burns Mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. Sign the online guestbook at www.burnsmortuary.com.

OBITUARIES

Bethel (Messer) Warner

Walla Walla
October 18, 1921 — October 26, 2019

Bethel (Beth) Warner of Pendleton, Ore., and later Walla Walla, Wash., passed away shortly after her 98th birthday. She was a wonderful loving mom, grandma and great-grandma; she had the ability to visit with anyone – anywhere.

Beth was born October 18, 1921, in Bartlett, Texas, to Jesse and Lillie Messer, the oldest of four children.

She attended Business College in Temple, Texas before going to work at the Fort Hood military base. She met and married the love of her life, Leroy (Roy) Warner, who was an Army captain stationed at Fort Hood. They met in November 1943 and were married on December 18 that same year.

Beth moved to Oregon after she was married, and when Roy was discharged from the Army he joined her there. They lived in Corvallis, Redmond, and finally Pendleton, Oregon, where they lived for 48 years.

She worked for the television office and Federal Crop Insurance, also in Pendleton. In 2004, they moved to Walla Walla, Wash., and six weeks later Roy passed away. Beth stayed in Walla Walla at Park Plaza Retirement Home. She was a homemaker who liked family get-togethers, gardening and playing bridge.

Beth was preceded in death by her parents, and husband Roy; brothers Jesse Messer Jr. and his wife Lola, and Merrell Messer and his wife Evelyn; and her sister Martha (WD) Mason. She is survived by her two daughters: Judith (Craig) Nelsen of Walla Walla, Washington, and Sally (Allen) Thompson of Athena, Oregon; two granddaughters: Michelle (Bill) Howard of Walla Walla, and Melissa (Scott) Bettencourt of Seattle, Washington; and great-grandchildren Charles and Elizabeth Howard.

A graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday, November 1, 2019, at Olney Cemetery in Pendleton. Donations can be made to the American Cancer Society, Salvation Army, or a charity of choice.

Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements. Sign the online guestbook at www.burnsmortuary.com.
