

PUBLIC SAFETY

WEDNESDAY

1:29 a.m. — The Morrow County Sheriff’s Office received the first of several driving complaints from Southeast Utah Avenue, Irrigon. Subsequent complaints came in at 7:09 a.m., 7:56 a.m. and 10:44 a.m.

That time a caller reported a black Ford with expired tags. The dispatcher was unsure what the complaint was about, and when another call came in it was asked if the person would hold.

“No, bye,” was the response.

The sheriff’s office received another report at 12:52 p.m. about the same vehicle, and the caller also claimed the driver has no insurance and probably does not have a license. A sheriff’s deputy responded but did not find the vehicle.

11:14 a.m. — A man asked to speak to a Hermiston police officer to find out if it is legal to carry an expandable baton.

11:57 a.m. — A Hermiston resident complained about a dog he thinks lives on the 1000 block of East Tamarack Avenue but never stays in its yard and comes over to his place and barks, growls and chases him. The dog also chases his cats, and he said he is concerned for the children at the nearby school.

12:08 p.m. — A Umatilla resident on J Street told police he has the name of the person who has been dumping their garbage in his garbage can.

12:28 p.m. — Law enforcement responded to a property on Northeast Obrien Place, Pendleton.

3:19 p.m. — Hermiston police responded to a report of a burglary on the 1100 block of South Highway 395.

8:24 p.m. — Umatilla County Sheriff’s Office responded to an assault at Green Acres Mobile Park, 53752 Appleton Road, Milton-Freewater.

Hand Picked to perform free gospel concert

MILTON-FREEWATER

— A five-member acoustic group from Eastern Washington will perform old-time and contemporary gospel favorites in Milton-Freewater.

Hand Picked will present a concert Friday, Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at St. James Church, 719 Pierce St., Milton-Freewater. Admission is free but donations will be accepted to support the Milton-Freewater Breadbasket.

While the group is known for its creative mix of acoustic bluegrass music and old-time gospel singing, Hand Picked performances encompass a range of styles. A number of the songs they play are written by group members, but concerts also feature old-time gospel favorites, such as “Church in the Wildwood” and contemporary pieces like “How Deep the Father’s Love.”

Performing in churches and other venues throughout the Pacific Northwest, Hand Picked includes Bill Dickerson (keyboard, ukulele, vocals), Clint Dickerson (guitar, mandolin, vocals), Steve Dickerson (guitar, vocals), Dennis Rootvik (bass, vocals) and Lauri Rootvik (ukulele, vocals). Even though they have different last names, they’re all cousins or brothers.

“Most of us have been playing one or more instruments since we were old enough to hold them,” said Steve Dickerson. “And some of the instruments we play were once owned by our fathers. We also perform songs we learned from them.”

Dickerson said the group’s name reflects the type of music they perform as well as the musicians’ belief that God has a special plan for each of his children.

“We’re all ‘hand picked’ to be part of his kingdom,” Dickerson explained.
