

OBITUARIES

Lynda Ferris Maselli

St. Maries, Idaho
December 26, 1940 — January 6, 2020

Lynda Ferris Maselli, granddaughter of Umatilla County pioneers Dr. I. U. Temple and Estelle Wells Temple, passed away at her Idaho ranch on January 6, 2020, from Acute Myeloid Leukemia.

Lynda was born in Pendleton, Ore., on December 26, 1940. She graduated from Pendleton High School in 1958 and attended Oregon State University and Eastern Oregon College.

In 1958 she was selected as a princess on the Pendleton Round-Up Court and attended every Round-Up for 64 years, missing only one year when her son was born the week of Round-Up. Every year, sitting in the grandstand watching the new queen and court make their grand entry, always brought tears to her eyes.

Lynda married Walt Hartfield and later Jack Maselli, the love of her life. Both Lynda and Jack owned real estate companies in Spokane, Wash. In 1979, she was elected as the first woman in the 66-year history of Spokane Board of Realtors to serve as president.

Upon retirement, she and Jack traveled extensively throughout the U.S. and abroad, making new friends wherever they roamed. They were always involved in the communities they lived in — Spokane Valley, Wash., Chewelah, Wash., Surprise, Ariz., and Gilbert (Ver-rado), Ariz.

Lynda was a huge animal lover. She was a dedicated volunteer at the Spokane Valley Animal Shelter. Her passion for quarter horses was reignited later in life and she raised and showed several AQHA champions. She was also an avid golfer, bridge player, and loved a good game of Scrabble.

Lynda is survived by her daughters Shelley Greco, St. Maries, Idaho, and Shannon Christiansen, Bellevue, Wash.; son Mark Hartfield (Sutaree), Gaithersburg, Md.; sisters Carol Ferris Jackson, Richland, Wash., and Patricia Ferris Lewis (Dann), Henderson, Nev.; six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and many cousins, nieces, and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, Chet and Irene Ferris, sister Janet Ferris, and husband Jack Maselli.

A Celebration of Life will be held February 22, 2020, at 11 a.m. at the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer in Pendleton, Ore. A reception will follow at the Red Lion Hotel in Pendleton. Please wear your western clothes in honor of Lynda.

Donations in memory of Lynda may to the Pendleton Round-Up Foundation, P.O. Box 609, Pendleton, OR 97801, or to a charity of your choice.

Gina Marie Davis

Pendleton
August 13, 1954 — January 26, 2020

Gina Marie Davis, 65, died Sunday, January 26, 2020, in Kennewick, Washington.

Gina was born in Portland, Oregon, on August 13, 1954, to Wally and Jean Cunningham. She spent most of her life on the west side of Oregon and Washington, then moving to Pendleton to be close to her family.

She attended Commercial Driver Training Inc. and became a long-haul truck driver.

Gina married Dennis Childers and she had a son, Shane Childers. She later married Jim Davis.

Gina enjoyed her church family at the Bethel Church, and she received her certificate of baptism and graduated School of Restoration. She enjoyed playing the piano and gospel music. Also other things she enjoyed were going on camping trips and baking at home.

She is survived by her son, Shane Childers of Pendleton.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Wally and Jean Cunningham.

A Celebration of Life will be held February 1, 2020, at 11 a.m.

at the Bethel Church, 1109 Airport Road, Pendleton, Oregon.

Memorial donations can be made in her memory to the Bethel Church to help contribute for her funeral expenses.

Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of the arrangements. Sign the online guestbook at www.burnsmortuary.com.

Dennis C. (Kim) Clark

Athena
February 25, 1947 — January 27, 2020

Dennis C. (Kim) Clark, 72, was taken home to his Father in Heaven on January 27, 2020. He resided in Athena, Oregon, with his wife Judi for the past 35 years.

He was born in Pendleton, Oregon, to J. Garth Clark and Neva E. Clark. Kim grew up in Stanfield, Oregon, and was active in all sports throughout his school years. He married Judi Crawford Roach on March 16, 1985, in Reno, Nevada.

Kim served in the United States Navy from 1965-1967. His tour of duty was in Vietnam.

Kim worked for many years at PGG in Pendleton, Oregon, as a parts manager and later at Sykes in Milton-Freewater, Oregon, as an account manager.

Kim was mayor of Athena, Oregon, for one term and was active in Athena's Caledonian Days. Kim enjoyed fishing, singing and playing guitar and attending his grandchildren's sporting events.

He is survived by his spouse Judi in Athena, Ore.; one son, Shawn Jorgensen

(Claudia) in Canyon Lakes, Calif.; one stepson, Jeff Roach (Toni) in Echo, Ore.; and one stepdaughter, Jaci Hoeft (Aaron) in Walla Walla, Wash. He is survived by two brothers, Kip Clark (Sandi) and Kelly Clark (Pam), and sister Karen Lackey (Gary). He is also survived by his pride and joy of nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Garth and Neva Clark.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Walla Walla Community Hospice, Providence St. Mary Cancer Center or East Umatilla Fire & Rescue in Athena, Oregon.

Graveside service will be held at Pleasant View Cemetery in Stanfield, Oregon, on February 7 at 3 p.m., with a Celebration of Life to follow at the Vert Auditorium downstairs in The Club Room, located at Fourth and Dorion in Pendleton, Oregon, from 5-7 p.m.

Yvonne Marie (LaLone) Street

Pendleton
October 10, 1938 — January 25, 2020

Yvonne Marie (LaLone) Street of Pendleton, Oregon, was born on October 10, 1938, in Oregon City, Oregon. She passed away on January 25, 2020, at the age of 81.

Yvonne grew up in Weston, Oregon. She attended Weston schools, graduating in 1957. After graduation, Yvonne attended Eastern Oregon College. She later moved to Salem where she graduated from beauty school. After graduating she spent 3 months traveling through Europe.

In 1961, she met Gary Smith. The couple married and made their home in Eugene, Oregon. It was here they raised their children, Chad and Wendy.

On May 25, 1985, Yvonne married Phillip Street. They resided in Pendleton, Oregon.

Yvonne worked as a switchboard operator during her high school years. Later in life she worked as a beautician, at Master Printers, Dr. Brandt's office, and First Community Credit Union where she retired in 1997.

Yvonne was full of fun and adventure. She loved to dance and travel. Yvonne and Phil would load up in their motorhome in the fall and return to Pendleton in the spring. Their travels took them across the United States, Mexico, Belize, Australia, the Caribbean, three months in Ecuador and many points of interest in South America. When they returned home in the spring, they would travel all over the Northwest.

One thing was for certain: For 28 years Yvonne and Phil were always home that second week in September where you could find them at the east end of the Let'er Buck Room, tending bar. She enjoyed this very much, meeting new people and making many friends.

Family meant everything to Yvonne. She attended as many activities and events as she could — whether it was a ball field/court or rodeo arena, Yvonne could be found cheering on her grandkids.

Yvonne is survived by her husband of 34 years, Phillip; children Chad (Karen Sue) Smith and Wendy (Mike) McDonough, Mark Street and Dayna Street; grandchildren Cain Smith, Dally Sue Smith, Calgary Smith, Ireland McDonough, Shane McDonough, Brandon Street, and Casey Street; sister Rene' (Russ) Woodall; and nephews Matthew and Mark Seelbinder.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Loneta and Leon Barnett.

A Celebration of Life will be held Saturday, February 29 at 1 p.m. at the Street residence, 3850 S.W. Tahoe, Pendleton, Ore.

Memorial contributions may be made to The Pendleton Round-Up Association, P.O. Box 609, Pendleton, OR 97801; The Umatilla County Historical Society Museum, P.O. Box 253, Pendleton, OR 97801; or to a charity of your choice.

Arrangements are with Burns Mortuary of Pendleton. Sign the online guestbook at www.burnsmortuary.com.

Community Colleges of Spokane release fall honor rolls

SPOKANE, Wash. — Spokane Falls Community College and Spokane Community College have named honor roll recipients for fall quarter 2019, which ended in December. Students must have a grade point average of 3.0 or above to be listed on the honor roll.

Huntyr Hamilton of Pendleton, and Brianna Rice of Hermiston, made the honor roll at Spokane Falls Community College. And Laura Ponce of Boardman was named to the honor roll at Spokane Community College, also in Spokane.

Community Colleges of Spokane is a dynamic, 12,300-square-mile state community college district that includes Spokane Community College, Spokane Falls Community College and six rural education sites, serving residents in Pend Oreille, Stevens, Whitman, Ferry and parts of Lincoln counties.

CCS offers high-quality academic transfer, career-technical and eLearning degree and certificate programs; business and community training; and adult literacy programs throughout northeastern Washington, enrolling approximately 34,000 students a year.

Whitman College students named to honor roll

WALLA WALLA, Wash. — Local students Salma Anguiano and Madilyn Hofbauer of Hermiston, Kaitlynne Jensen of Milton-Freewater, and Cameron Sipe of Umatilla earned academic distinction for the fall 2019 semester at Whitman College. This recognition is given to students who have completed a minimum of 12 credits, passed all credits attempted, and have earned a grade-point average of 3.5 or higher on no fewer than nine graded credits during the semester.

Situated within the rich and complex landscape and history of the Walla Walla Valley, Whitman College provides a rigorous liberal arts education of the highest quality to passionate and engaged students from diverse backgrounds. Whitman students develop their intellectual and creative capacities in a supportive scholarly community that prioritizes student learning within and beyond our classrooms. We help each student translate their deep local, regional, and global experiences into ethical and meaningful lives of purpose.
