Lecture discusses dinosaurs and the Bible

HERMISTON — Do fossilized dinosaur bones disprove the Bible's account of a recent creation? If you knew that many dinosaur bones, upon being unearthed, exude a rotten odor, what might that tell you? Those questions and more will be explored on Saturday, Oct. 24, at 11 a.m. at the Hermiston Seventh-day Adventist Church, 855 W. Highland Ave.

Kent Knight, who holds a master of divinity and a bachelor's degree in behavioral science with an emphasis on anthropology, will lecture on "Dead But Dangerous Dinosaurs: Dinosaurs, Science and the Bible."

All are welcome to attend the free lecture, and documentation for Knight's assertions will be provided to each attendee.

For more information, contact Knight at 541-701-0394.

Drug Take Back happening this weekend

WALLA WALLA, Wash. — The DEA National Drug Take Back Day, scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 24, in Walla Walla, Hermiston and La Grande, and Sunday, Oct. 25, in College Place, Washington, allows residents to turn in old prescription or over-the-counter medications at no charge, with no questions asked.

The drop-off event is scheduled to run from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at all sites.

Drop-off sites on Oct. 24 include the Walla Walla Police Department, 54 E. Moore St.; the Hermiston Police Department, 330 S. First St.; and the La Grande Safeway, 2111 Adams Ave. On Oct. 25, items can be dropped off at the College Place Walmart parking lot, 1700 S.E. Meadowbrook Blvd.

Residents can drop off solid and liquid prescription and over-the-counter medications, and vape pens and e-cigarette products only if the batteries have been removed. Products not accepted include intravenous solutions, injectables, inhalers, syringes, chemotherapy medications, vaping devices that have non-removable batteries, or medical waste.

Due to COVID precautions, there will be no shredding services, and no sharps or computers will be accepted, at the Walla Walla and College Place drop sites.

Free webinar discusses senior depression

PENDLETON — McKay Creek Estates, a Prestige senior living community in Pendleton, is offering a free webinar on Thursday, Oct. 29, from 10-11 a.m. that focuses on understanding the symptoms of depression in seniors and how families can support their loved ones.

Led by Eldercare counselor Laura Vaillancourt, the webinar will provide insight into identifying depression in seniors and the complex and unique issues they live with. Vaillancourt has extensive experience in helping the elderly and their families navigate their lives amid Alzheimer's and other types of dementia.

To sign up for the webinar, visit www.MomAndDadDeserveTheBest.com. After the presentation, participants will receive a link to a recording of the webinar for future use, as well as corresponding slides and a free download of Prestige's Guide to Memory Care.

For more information, call Angie Frantz, Expressions product manager, at 253-298-2578.

BMCC, IMESD plan virtual college fairs

PENDLETON — Intermountain Education Service District and Blue Mountain Community College are teaming up to host two virtual college fairs for high school teachers and counselors, students, or families of students exploring the option of attending college.

On Tuesday, Oct. 27, at 1 p.m., and Monday, Nov. 2, at 8 a.m., students can log in to the virtual college fair to meet with Oregon colleges. Individuals can attend or teachers can organize a full class participation virtual field trip by registering at bluecc.edu/GetInfo. The event is fully online as a means to protecting the health of the Eastern Oregon communities.

The virtual fairs allow participants to stay for the full duration of the event or attend for a shorter time, while continuing to learn about the option of attending college in Oregon.

"Folks from both IMESD and BMCC are very excited about this opportunity. We believe this can reach students and parents who may not otherwise attend because of health concerns," said BMCC Director of Admissions and Outreach Abby Pierson. "We plan to make this an annual partnership to offer access to information about college to all students in our service district in a virtual format."

For more information, visit BMCC's Facebook event or RSVP at bluecc.edu/GetInfo.

Thanksgiving Fellowship Dinner makes adjustments

HERMISTON — As with many of Umatilla County's annual events, Hermiston's free dinner provided each Thanksgiving Day has made accommodations to continue in a COVID-safe manner.

Instead of the usual sit-down dinner, the Community Fellowship Dinner will be provided as a drive-thru, heat-and-serve box meal available on Thursday, Nov. 26, at Hermiston High School's parking lot, 600 N. First St. The meal of turkey, cornbread stuffing, mashed potatoes and gravy, vegetables, roll and dessert will be available from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. for anyone wanting a meal. Those receiving meals are required to stay in their vehicles and wear face coverings.

Limited food delivery also will be available, but must be scheduled prior to Thanksgiving Day. Volunteers are needed for a variety of jobs, some involving being outside. Donations are always welcome.

For more information, to schedule food delivery, or to volunteer, call 541-371-9772 or email cfdhermiston@gmail.com.

Local students initiated into Phi Kappa Phi

BATON ROUGE, La. — Rebecca Emmons of Pendleton and Veronica Coria of Stanfield, both students at Eastern Oregon University in La Grande, recently were initiated into The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, the nation's oldest and most selective collegiate honor society for all academic disciplines.

They are among approximately 30,000 students, faculty, professional staff and alumni to be initiated into Phi Kappa Phi each year. Membership is by invitation only and requires nomination and approval by a chapter. Only the top 10% of seniors and 7.5% of juniors are eligible for membership. Graduate students in the top 10% of the number of candidates for graduate degrees may also qualify, as do faculty, professional staff and alumni who have achieved scholarly distinction.

Virtual Fishtrap Fireside features local authors

ENTERPRISE — Put a log on the fire and tune in for Fishtrap Fireside's monthly reading series on Friday, Nov. 6, at 7 p.m. November's featured readers include longtime Fishtrap friends Benjamin Curry, Kathy Hunter and Moll McCarty.

The series can be accessed online at www.fishtrap.org/fishtrap-fireside-2/, or on Fishtrap's YouTube channel. A video of the event also will be available following the program.

Since 2013, more than 80 local writers have stepped up to the podium to share their work, and each month offers new insights from local authors. The monthly event moved online due to coronavirus protocols and will continue there until conditions improve.
