COMMUNITY BRIEFS

Theatre company to present 'A Christmas Carol'

HERMISTON — The Traveling Lantern Theatre Company will bring "The Story of Ebenezer Scrooge, or A Christmas Carol" to Eastern Oregon via a virtual performance Dec. 6-13, courtesy of the Hermiston Public Library. The classic tale tells of a miser's redemption by a ghost from his past, who teaches him the joys of caring for, and giving to, others.

While tickets are free, registration is required. Available at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/the-story-of-ebenezer-scrooge-tickets-128698908901?aff=ebdss-bonlinesearch>, tickets give each family unlimited access to the performance starting Sunday, Dec. 6 at 5 p.m. and continuing through Sunday, Dec. 13 at 5 p.m. Connection instructions are included with all tickets.

A limited number of tickets include a snack pack to enjoy during the performance. Packs must be picked up at the library, 235 E. Gladys Ave., on Dec. 4-5 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. A copy of the snack pack e-Ticket (digital is fine) is required to claim the treats. Only one pack will be available per family.

For more information, call the library at 541-567-2882.

CTUIR awarded Meyer Opportunity Grant

PORTLAND — Meyer Memorial Trust announced 150 Annual Funding Opportunity grants, totaling $21.3 million, to organizations working to create a more equitable and flourishing Oregon. The grants will support organizations that work with and grow communities that have long experienced disparities.

The Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation in Pendleton received a $300,000 grant to redevelop the Lucky 7 manufactured home park with new, high-efficiency homes on the reservation.

Meyer redesigned its grants program five years ago and has since focused on investments that break down inequities through local and statewide policy and systems change. Last fall, in its 2019 Annual Funding Opportunity, Meyer awarded 142 grants, totaling $17.5 million.

Bank of EO announces 2020 dividend

HEPPNER — The Board of Directors of BEO Bancorp voted recently to declare a $0.95 per share dividend for 2020. The dividend will be paid to shareholders of record as of

Dec. 8, payable on or before Dec. 15, according to a press release.

Board Chairman Joe Gonzales Jr. said BEO Bancorp has paid a dividend to shareholders in 34 of the past 35 years, and the 2020 dividend is an increase from the prior year.

"The dividend of $0.95 per share compares to a $0.90 dividend paid in 2019, an increase of 5.55%," said President and CEO Jeff Bailey. "It is indicative of Bank of Eastern Oregon's strong capital position. The board of directors and employees work hard to improve the overall strength of the bank, add value to our shareholders, as well as provide the brand of banking that our customers appreciate and expect from Bank of Eastern Oregon. The support of our shareholders, communities and employees have made it possible for us to continue to be successful."
