OBITUARIES

Betty Ann Roach

Fossil

October 11, 1921 — December 2, 2020

and Betty worked her way through school by cleaning for the nuns. She also sold Clovine Salve during school years and after she married.

Betty grew up on the banks of Eight Mile Creek, where she learned to ride, rope, and handle a team. She spent many hours in the fields. Her dad had land across the North Fork of the John Day River and as she grew older, she did a lot of riding after the cattle, packing out salt and such. She developed quite a reputation as a horse woman. Like her father, who was a rodeo rider for many years, she spent many hours on horseback and was well-known for her skill. Her favorite horse was Poka Dot. She attended her first rodeo in 1932, when she was 11 years old.

Betty studied and received a certificate from the Berry School of Horsemanship. She also went to Weather Bureau School in Seattle, Washington. Then worked as a filing clerk for the Thirteenth Naval District.

On March 4, 1944, Betty married Raleigh Weaver.

They moved back to Ritter country and worked on various ranches. They divorced on December 3, 1962, and she married Fred Roach. She and Fred traveled extensively due to Fred's shearing sheep and falling timber. They made their home at Elk City, Idaho, for some five years, then moved to Hermiston, Oregon, and bought an acreage as Fed had a job shearing orphan lambs and calves.

They sold the place in Hermiston and moved to Boardman to care for Betty's parents. After the death of her parents in 1973, they sold the holdings in Boardman and moved to Helix. Again, they sold and moved up to the Wenatchee River area Leavenworth. They stayed there one winter and decided there was too much snow so moved back to Buck Gulch on the Middle Fork of the John Day river. After several moves, they settled in Fossil to make their final home. Fred passed on December 28, 1995.

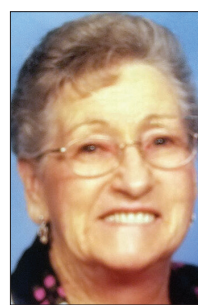

In 1998 a life-long friend, Frank Andrus, came up and stayed with Betty. She took care of him up until his death on November 15, 2002. Betty continued to live by herself until she became ill and moved to Haven House Retirement Center in 2009. There, Betty joined in on activities, church services, Bible study, bowling, bingo, and such, even to the last two weeks of her life.

Although Betty had no children of her own, she became a "mom" figure to her husband's grandchildren and to children belonging to friends and other family. One of them, Penny Baldwin, became like a daughter to her and she and Penny became very close, sharing everything from sewing hints to Betty's personal history. Frequent visits from Bill and Kathleen, Lorie and Zenith were always welcome at Betty's place.

She is survived by many friends, both within her church (Fossil United Methodist), where she was baptized, and outside of it. Betty will be missed. She was a good friend to us all.

Suzanne Lieuallen Jepsen

Heppner

October 26, 1928 — November 28, 2020

When Bob retired from farming in 1991, they moved into Heppner. She devoted much of her time to church and community activities and was instrumental in building the Willow Creek Terrace Assisted Living Facility. She and Bob especially enjoyed attending the grandkids' music and sports events.

Jepsen

Suzanne loved her Savior, Jesus Christ, and spending time with her family. Up until the age of 89, when she entered assisted living, Suzanne was involved in a wide variety of activities: golfing, Bookworms Club, helping seniors at Willow Creek Terrace and kids at AWANA Bible Club, women's Bible study group, bridge club, and exercise classes. She leaves a heritage of Christian faith for her family and was an inspirational example of prayer, grace, class, and hospitality. Those left to cherish her memories include: daughter Susan Bullington of Umatilla, son Bill (Nancy) Jepsen of Enterprise, six grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her brother Frank, and husband Bob.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Sunday, December 13, at 1 p.m. at Willow Creek Baptist Church in Heppner, with a graveside service at the Heppner Cemetery to follow. Because seating is limited to 50 people in the church due to COVID restrictions, the memorial service will be live streamed on Facebook at the Willow Creek Baptist - Heppner page. The service will remain on the Facebook page and can be viewed at any time. If you would like to attend in person, please call Bill Jepsen at 541-571-2380 so we can keep a headcount. If the maximum allowed number is met, the service will also be available on 88.1 FM radio in the church parking lot. There will plenty of space for those who would like to attend the graveside service.

Memorial contributions can be made to one of Suzanne's favorite charities, the Salvation Army, 150 S.E. Emigrant Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801, or online at https://pendleton.salvationarmy.org/.

Carol Ella Smith

Pendleton

May 17, 1936 — November 28, 2020

Avenue, across from what is now city hall. Over the years, Mr. TV morphed from television service and sales to MR. and MRS.

Carol was born May 17, 1936, on a horse ranch near Helena, Montana. Her parents moved the next year to Creswell, Oregon, where her maternal (Cameron) grandparents played a large role in raising their first grandchild. She attended both Cloverdale School and Creswell High School.

Before she remarried and settled to Pendleton, Oregon, in 1965, Carol was a mother and military wife, making her home in Nuremberg, Germany; Shirley, Massachusetts; Anchorage, Alaska; and Portland, Oregon.

Carol worked at Sears and Roebuck before joining her husband, Russell Smith, in opening their 32-year business venture, "Mr. TV," on Dorion Avenue in Pendleton. They moved the business to Main Street, Pendleton, before a building fire forced a move back to Dorion they also ate a lot of popcorn, played games, and watched all the new releases. Carol was never rich, but she saved all her coins in empty nut tins, which she gave to each grandchild on their birthday. Following her retirement, Carol volunteered in the Get Smart Reading Program at Hawthorne Elementary School.

Carol had a passion for flowers and gardening. She joined the Pendleton Garden Club in her early 30s, beginning 27 years devoted to planting and events. Over the years, Carol could be seen happily planting flowers at the business storefront and beautifying her home and garden on the South Hill in Pendleton.

Carol is preceded in death by her beloved grandparents, Richard and Ella Cameron; her parents, Lester Cunningham and Evelyn Cunningham Devault; her husband, Russell Smith; two brothers; and two grandsons. Survivors include her brother, Charles Cunningham of Vancouver, Washington; her aunt, Dorothy Smith, of Salem, Oregon; her six sisters, Reta Rhodes of Oklahoma and Darlyssa Romero, Sherrie Campbell, Shawnell DeVault, Shermene Ourique and Sherrellyn Meadows, all of California; and her six children, Colleen, Scott, Michael, Diana, Jay and Mary, all Pendleton High School graduates.
