OBITUARIES

Ila Mae Burns

Pendleton
July 30, 1921 — February 17, 2021

Ila Mae Burns, wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, passed Wednesday, February 17, 2021. She was born to Elmer (Buck) and Wilma Weaver on July 30, 1921, in Vona, Colorado.

Her love for sports came to her naturally as she watched her father play semi-pro baseball. As a family, they also camped by and fished the many beautiful rivers and lakes in Colorado. She enjoyed speaking to us about playing basketball during her school years. She played on the varsity team starting as a freshman, and loved every minute of it.

She met her future husband, Bruce, in Idaho Springs, Colorado. When they decided to marry, Bruce had enlisted in the Army. Ila Mae joined him, traveling alone from her small home town to Connecticut to be married on October 2, 1943, in the chapel on the campus of Yale University. Bruce was in an accelerated Army engineering program. They both remembered dancing and listening to Glen Miller and his band's several performances. Bruce was soon sent to active duty in Europe and WWII. During his service time, Ila Mae and her parents worked in Tennessee supporting the war effort there.

Ila Mae, Bruce, and their young son David moved to Pendleton in 1949, along with many new-to-Pendleton educators. It was a fun group of young professionals who became a very important part of Pendleton. This group became known as the '49ers and were involved in every aspect of the community.

She encouraged all of her children to participate in a wide range of activities, and attended every event to support them. Her own family enjoyed the outdoors and fishing.

She and Bruce owned a small business, The Popcorn Wagon, for several years. The food truck was parked at the swimming pool (which is now the ice-skating rink), on Main Street, and at many events in Pendleton. They also helped start the Teacher's Credit Union, the office of which was in their basement. Business was conducted seven days a week, and the children still remember folding quarterly statements together.

Ila Mae is survived by her three children David Burns, Dan Burns and Kathy (Phillip) Houk; granddaughters Alysun, Jessica, Kacie and Chelcie; and great-grandchildren Kaden, Maecie, Hadlie, Charleigh, Dallas, Clara, Brooks, and Tyler Blair.

The family is grateful to Lorena and Vanessa (home care); Richard and the Hospice team; and Terry, Sandy, Amber and Mackenzie of Sunridge Adult Care, for their compassionate care of Mom.

An informal gathering of close friends and family will be held at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop, on Saturday, March 6 at 10 a.m. Viewing will be at 9:45 a.m. Burial will be at 10:30 a.m. at Olney Cemetery. Masks and social distancing will be required.

Memorial donations may be made to Shriners Children's Hospital, or Pendleton Foundation Trust.

Kimberly Dawn 'Kimi' Wilson

Eugene
June 20, 1968 — February 11, 2021

Kimberly Dawn "Kimi" Wilson, 52, continued her journey on February 11, 2021, in Eugene, Oregon, due to heart complications.

Kim was born in Sweet Home, Oregon, on June 30, 1968, to Juanita Bradshaw and Orville Seltson. Jaunita later married James Thomas "Tom" Bradshaw and the couple raised Kim. She was preceded in death by both parents, James Thomas and Jaunita Bradshaw; granddaughter Gracie; a brother, William Bradshaw; and sisters-in-law Annette Shelton and Daralyn Johnson.

Survivors include her husband, William "Bill" Wilson of Springfield, Oregon; fiancé Felicia Durfee of Eugene, Oregon; daughter Savannah Welch and her significant other Adam Valentine of Albany, Oregon; daughter Danielle Welch and her significant other Justin Foord of Scio, Oregon; grandchildren Hunter Breazile, Ryder Foord, Bailee Foord, Joshua Foord, Oden Valentine and Avery Valentine; Felicia's father Robert Durfee and his wife Jessica Durfee of Spring City, Utah; brother Glen "Bubba" Shelton of Chester, California; sisters Trudy Zemmer and her husband Les of Baker City, Oregon, Judy Nord of Pendleton, Oregon, and Sue Johnston and her husband Don of Sweet Home, Oregon; sisters-in-law Marcie Huber and her husband Trent Huber of Oral, South Dakota, and Kellie Darrow of Pendleton, Oregon; and several nieces and nephews.

Kim was a kind and gentle woman who would give it to you straight and with passion. Kim liked to fish, camp and go to the beach, various genres of music ranging from rock to rap and, most importantly, spending time with her family and friends. Kim helped and touched many hearts along the way.

Kim met her husband William "Bill" Wilson in August of 2001 and they married on September 20, 2002, spending nearly 20 years together. Despite their separation they remained good friends.

Kim met her fiancé, Felicia Durfee, and the couple lived in Eugene, Oregon, where Kim took up painting bird houses and was learning to use a wood burner, making designs and other little painted wall plaques, where she was able to show her artistic talent. Kim's sense of humor was without parallel. As one plaque she made said "Home is where the ho & me rendezvous." Felicia, Savannah, Danielle, Bill and the rest of the family have many fond memories to be cherished and shared.

Please join us in her celebration of life and taco bar in Eugene, Oregon, on Sunday, March 7, at 2 p.m., located at 4531 Franklin Blvd.; watch for parking signs and signs to celebration area.

Harold Glen Ammons

The Dalles
August 6, 1937 — February 17, 2021

Harold Glen Ammons was born August 6, 1937, in Spencerville, Oklahoma, to Wallace P. and Jessie M. (Frazier) Ammons. Harold passed away on February 17, 2021, at Mid-Columbia Medical Center in The Dalles, Oregon. He had been a resident of the Oregon Veteran's Home in The Dalles since December 2018.

Harold moved with his family from Oklahoma at age 5. The family settled in Mayville where Harold attended grades 1-8 at Mayville Grade School; he graduated from Condon High School in 1956. He joined the U.S. Army in 1959 and returned to Condon after his two years of service.

He began working at Burns Bros. Grocery in Condon where he met his wife Kathryn Lou Boyer (Burns). Harold and Kathryn Lou were married in March 1965 and he also became a parent to Debby and Dan Boyer.

Harold later worked for John Deere in Condon and in Pendleton, Oregon, for several years. He retired twice from his sales position with Bob Stone Subaru in The Dalles, Oregon. Harold had a loyal customer base and many people in the area would only talk to Harold when they were ready for a new car. Car sales was his calling; he enjoyed working with people and remained friends with customers past his retirement. During this time, he spent most of his time driving, delivering cars from Condon to Pendleton, and Madras or The Dalles area.

Harold was a devoted member of the Condon Elks Lodge, and he loved golf, watching bull riding, and listening to western music. He was also enormously proud of his family Choctaw heritage. Harold will always be remembered for his goodness, kindness, and devotion to his family, particularly his grandchildren, who he helped raise.

Harold is survived by his stepdaughter Debra Boyer (George Yeannakis) of Seattle, Washington; grandchildren Thea Yeannakis, and Gretchen, Rachel and Seth Boyer; great-grandchildren Sydney Boyer (daughter of Seth Boyer) and Cormac Porter (son of Rachel Boyer); his brother, Jim Ammons (DuAnn) of Summerville, Oregon; sister Patsy Moffit (Dennis) of Pendleton, Oregon; many nieces and nephews who adored him; and his sister and brother-in-law, Sue and Gary Miller of Condon.

Harold was preceded in death by his wife, Kathryn Lou Ammons (2005); his stepson, James Daniel Boyer (2013); his father and mother; and sisters Helen Owen and Sue Tolan.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to Condon Elks Lodge #1869 and St. John's Catholic Church in Condon, Oregon.

Due to COVID-19, a graveside service will be held later in the spring.

Sweeney Mortuary of Condon is in care of arrangements. You may sign the online condolence book at www.sweeneymortuary.com.
