Ruth Bowman and Everett Barlow

Ruth Anne Bowman

Milton-Freewater
September 14, 1942 — January 11, 2021

Ruth A. Bowman, 78, passed away at her longtime home in Milton-Freewater, Oregon, on Jan 11, 2021.

Ruth was born on September 14, 1942, in Weiser, Idaho, to Frank G. Bowman and Helen M. (Jean) Marlow Bowman, the second of four siblings. She grew up in Baker County near Richland, Oregon, helping her family on the ranch where she learned extensive homemaking skills; gardening, preserving, sewing and crocheting.

In 1958, Ruth married Herbert P. Anderson. They lived in Baker City, Oregon, where they had three children together: Barbara Davis, Debra (Rod) MacLean and Douglas Anderson. They later divorced in 1970.

Ruth moved with her children first to La Grande and then to Pendleton where she attended college at Blue Mountain CC and studied accounting courses. She began working at Harvest Chevrolet, where she met the love of her life, Everett Barlow, and his three children: David (Rebecca) Barlow, Julia Armstrong (Sean Moore) and Tamara (Robert) Pahl. Everett shared her love of the mountains; fishing, mushroom picking and looking for wild animals at every opportunity.

Ruth and Everett moved to Milton-Freewater in 1987 when Ruth assumed the position of office manager at Dayl Graves in Walla Walla, Washington. She became well known for her smile and excellent customer service. She retired from Dayl Graves in 2013.

Ruth was a lifelong learner, determined in her efforts to acquire new skills and pursue creative interests. She became an accomplished painter. Later Ruth learned to machine knit and even operated a small business, Ruth's Knits, where she provided lessons and other services to the machine knitting community.

Ruth was an extraordinary mother, grandmother, sibling and friend. Ruth's home and property were the gathering place where you were well fed and stories told. Her strength of character, resilience, generous spirit, kindness and loving guidance will continue to inspire her family now and for generations to come. A life well lived in every aspect. She will be sorely missed by all that knew and loved her.

Ruth is survived by her six children and their significant others, including 11 grandchildren: Robyn, Kyle, Conner, Cameron, Travis, Tori, Blythe, Trever, Sara, Paisley and Katie; 12 great-grandchildren; and a great-great-grandchild on the way. Ruth was preceded in death by her long-time love, Everett; her parents; brother Garry; son Doug; and grandson Colin.

A memorial will be held at a later date when family can gather safely and celebrate her life very well lived.

Those wishing to make a memorial donation in Ruth's name can make it to St. Mary's Cancer Center through Herring Groseclose Funeral Home, 315 W. Alder St., Walla Walla, WA 99362.

Everett Charles 'Pete' Barlow

Milton-Freewater
January 17, 1945 — December 21, 2020

Everett C. Barlow (Pete) passed away on December 21, 2020, at Providence St. Mary Medical Center.

He was born January 17, 1945, in Heppner, Oregon, to his parents Everett and Alberta (Hoffman) Barlow. He spent his childhood years working harvest for his uncles and the Peterson ranches in Heppner. After graduating from Pendleton High School in 1963 he was drafted by the U.S. Army, working in the motor pool section in South Korea. He was honorably discharged in 1972.

After returning to Pendleton, in 1968, he married Linda Mansker. They had three children together: David (Rebecca) Barlow, Julia Armstrong (Sean Moore) and Tamara (Robert) Pahl. Linda and Everett later divorced.

Everett worked for 18 years at Pendleton Grain Growers. After leaving PGG, Everett went to work at Harvest Chevrolet as an outside parts salesman, where he met the love of his life, Ruth Bowman, and her three children Barb Davis, Debbie (Rod) MacLean and Doug Anderson from a prior marriage. Ruth and Everett moved to Milton-Freewater in 1987 and spent the remainder of their 35 years together fishing, hunting and just being in the mountains. Everett worked as a sales manager at Platt Electric for many years, traveling to regional stores for delivery.

Everett later became an active member of the Walla Walla Gun Club, Fort Walla Walla Muzzleloaders Club and the East End Rod and Gun Club, helping out wherever he could. Everett especially enjoyed teaching hunting and gun safety for the youth and women programs. He loved going to the trap shoots with his good buddies. He passed on many hunting tips and stories to his children and grandchildren that will live on through the many generations to come. In his retirement he enjoyed doing dealer trades for Dayl Graves, Inc.

He especially enjoyed his six children, their significant others; 11 grandchildren: Trever, Sara, Paisley, Katie, Robyn, Kyle, Cameron, Blythe, Travis, Tori and Conner; and 12 great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his sister Mary (Allen) Earley, and stepsister Cindy (Harley) Wheeler. Everett was preceded in death by his infant sister, father and mother.

Everett was a very loving mate, father and grandfather, loved by all that knew him, and he will be greatly missed.

A memorial will be held at a later date. Those wishing to make a memorial donation in his name can make it to the American Heart Association or the Walla Walla Gun Club through Herring Groseclose Funeral Home, 315 W. Alder St., Walla Walla, WA 99362.

James Lewis 'Jim' Larsen

Pendleton
January 9, 1975 — February 23, 2021

Jim finished his earthly journey on February 23, 2021. He is no longer in pain and has been reunited with his dad, Roger.

James Lewis Larsen was born January 9, 1975, in Clarkston, Washington, to Rosiland Ann Hodges and Roger Darrel Larsen. He was one of six boys. Jim lived in Molin, Oregon, and graduated from Lost River High School. He was very active in sports. Jim was a state competitor in football and wrestling and was recently inducted into the Lost River Hall of Fame.

After graduating high school, Jim served a two-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in North Carolina. Jim completed his mission and returned home to pursue his education as an electrician. That began his lifelong career.

In 2000, Jim married Jaime Marie Arevalo and they were sealed for time and all eternity in the Columbia River Washington LDS temple on April 12, 2002. Jim was diagnosed with a liver disease at a young age and underwent two liver transplants during his life. Against all odds they were blessed with a daughter in October 2005, Ashtyn Faith. Jim deeply loved his daughter and enjoyed spending time in the outdoors with her, four-wheeling and camping.

Jim was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, where he served faithfully in many different capacities. He spent numerous years as a ward clerk and serving the inmate population at the Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution.

Jim spent his life working as an electrician. He enjoyed being outside, traveling to different job sites and sharing his expertise in the field. He was known for his strong work ethic. He was currently employed with Dry Canyon Communication LLC, who thought of him as family.

Jim loved the outdoors; his favorite time of the year was hunting season. He had an avid interest in guns, enjoying his time at Shot Show in Las Vegas every year. Jim will be remembered for his stories, his sense of humor, his willingness to help others, and his perseverance.

Jim is survived by his wife, Jaime Larsen, and daughter, Ashtyn Larsen, of Pendleton; mother Rosiland Larsen of Malin, Oregon; and brothers Bret (Amber), Steven (Debbie), Ryan (Sonja), Mark (Rebecca) and Kevin (Julia).

He is preceded in death by his father, Roger Larsen, grandfathers Ted Hodges and Glen Larsen, and grandmother Viola Hodges.

A private family service will be held Friday, February 26, 2021, at 10 a.m. at the Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 S.E. Byers Ave. Burial to follow at Skyview Memorial Park in Pendleton, Oregon.
