OBITUARIES

Patricia 'Pat' Easton

Anchorage, Alaska
March 10, 1937 — February 26, 2021

Pat was born and raised in the Los Angeles, California, area. She married the love of her life, Kenneth (Gene) Eugene Easton, on April 24, 1955. Pat and Gene bought a home in Garden Grove, California, where they were active with the Garden Grove West Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Easton

It was there that they began to raise their first four children, David, Ken Jr., Mike and Becky, along with a menagerie of dogs, cats and birds. Pat's heart and door were always open to her children's friends, who were included in the family's many outings and activities.

In August of 1972, the family relocated to North Pole, Alaska, where they continued to be active as Jehovah's Witnesses in the North Pole Congregation. Pat continued to open her heart and door to her children's friends and a variety of pets. After a few years, their family was completed with the addition of Shawn.

Pat's love of children moved her to become a classroom aide for children with special needs.

Pat continued this career when she and Gene moved to Forest Grove, Oregon, in the mid 1990s. In Forest Grove, Pat and Gene made many friends in the Forest Grove Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

In December of 2019, Pat returned to Alaska to be near her sons, David and Mike. In Anchorage, she added to her circle of friends at the Anchorage South Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Pat was preceded in death by her husband Gene, and her sons Ken Jr. and Shawn. Pat is survived by her sons David and Mike; her daughter Becky; 16 grandchildren; and many great-grandchildren, in-laws, nieces, nephews and friends.

The family appreciates the support of Alzheimer's Resource Center of Alaska, HomeWell Care Services, Providence Horizon House, and Providence Hospice.

A memorial for Pat will be held on Zoom on March 13 at 2 p.m. Alaska Standard Time. Please contact 907-231-2557 for Zoom meeting information.

COMMUNITY BRIEFING

Power House Theatre to offer film screenings

WALLA WALLA, Wash. — Gesa Power House Theatre will reopen for film screenings starting Friday, March 12, and continuing for as long as Walla Walla remains in Phase 2 of Governor Inslee's Safe Start Washington recovery plan.

Gesa Power House Theatre will be announcing multiple film screenings in the coming weeks. Films will be screened on Fridays at 7 p.m., with an encore screening the following Wednesday at 7 p.m. In order to comply with social distancing, all films will be general admission.

First up on Friday, March 12, and again on Wednesday, March 17, will be a screening of the documentary "Picture of His Life," which is currently opening festivals throughout the world and frequently winning Audience Awards for Best Documentary. The film follows Amos Nachoum, one of the world's greatest underwater photographers, as he attempts to photograph the elusive polar bear.

With pandemic restrictions easing, increasing availability of vaccines, and social distancing and cleaning protocols in place, Gesa Power House Theatre is allowed to reopen at 25% capacity under Phase 2 of Washington's Safe Start Plan. Seating for each film screening will be capped at 100 patrons. Additional precautions including required mask use and physical distancing between households will be observed. Details can be found at www.phtww.org/covid-19.

Tickets are $15 for adults and $10 for students, available online at www.phtww.org or by calling the box office at 509-529-6500.

Online Fishtrap workshops feature favorite authors

ENTERPRISE — Fishtrap will offer monthly writing workshops in an online format through May, featuring some of the group's favorite writers.

A weekend virtual writing workshop gets things rolling on Saturday, March 13, and Saturday, March 20, featuring Perrin Kerns. "Writing For Resilience: Finding and Using Joy as a Source," will focus on writing about joy in the midst of the pandemic, protests, climate change and solitude. Cost to participate is $270, or $240 for Fishtrap members. Registration is open at www.Fishtrap.org.

April's virtual workshop features nature writer Karen Auvinen. "The Land Beneath Your Feet: Writing with Nature" will be held Wednesdays in April from 6-7:30 p.m. (Pacific time). Registration is $270, or $243 for Fishtrappers.

And in May, "Mining Your Life For Laughter" brings Bob Balmer to Fishtrap on Saturday, May 8 from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Sign up for $120, or $110 for Fishtrap members.

More information is available on the organization's website, www.Fishtrap.org.
