Edwin James Gill

Arlington
April 20, 1928 — March 9, 2021

Edwin James Gill, 92, of Arlington died Tuesday, March 9, 2021, at Mid-Columbia Medical Center in The Dalles. A memorial graveside service will be held on Saturday, March 27, 2021, at 11 a.m., at the Arlington Cemetery.

He was born at Independence, Missouri, on April 20, 1928, the son of William Arthur and Vella Marie Humphreys Gill. He was raised at Hopkins, Missouri where he attended school and graduated from high school.

In 1953, Ed moved to Florence, Oregon, and began working at a grocery store, he later became manager of that store. In 1961, he went to work for Kraft Foods as a salesman, working there until 1987 when he moved to Arlington working at the landfill for a few years. Ed remained in Arlington until 2020 when he moved to The Dalles.

Ed served as mayor of Scio, Oregon, and served on the Arlington Health Clinic board. He was a lifelong member of the Elks Lodge where he served as chaplain for several years.

While living in Arlington, he enjoyed playing golf, his involvement in the United Methodist Church, being an Arizona snowbird and spending time with friends and family.

Ed is survived by his wife, Lois Hutson-Gill; son, Randy Gill; stepsons, Phil Hutson, Steven Anderson, David Anderson; stepdaughter, Linda Creager; grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Shirley Gill; sisters, Anna Marie Florea, Len Mae Wray; brothers, William Gill, Robert Gill, George Gill.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Arlington United Methodist Church, PO Box 417, Arlington, OR 97812.

Sweeney Mortuary of Condon is in care of arrangements. You may sign the online condolence book at www.sweeneymortuary.com.

Laura Janice 'Jan' Mills

Pendleton/Colville
January 2, 1930 — March 4, 2021

Laura Janice "Jan" Mills passed away peacefully on March 4, 2021, in Colville, Washington, with her loving sister and niece beside her.

She was born on January 2, 1930, in Bismarck, North Dakota to Erwin and Miriam (Chase) Hannemann.

Jan's parents worked for a railroad company, so the little family "rode the rails" for a few years before settling in the Palouse Country of Washington State, where the family farmed and had two more children, JoAnn and "Bud." The Hannemanns later moved to Litchfield, Minnesota, where Jan attended and graduated from Litchfield High School with the class of 1948.

She met Floyd K. "Jim" Mills and the two exchanged marriage vows on May 14, 1949, in Litchfield. The couple farmed in Eden Valley, Minnesota, where they welcomed two children, Pam in 1951, and Dan in 1953. Jan's cooking skills were challenged and perfected when cooking, not only for her family, but a threshing crew that could number fourteen hungry men. For enjoyment, she and Jim went to local square dances.

In 1962, the Mills moved to Renton, Washington, where they finished raising their children and were active members of the Christian Church in Issaquah. Jan was a crafter and was the woman in charge of crafts at VBS. She sewed, painted, and decorated cakes, making cakes for special occasions, including weddings, for family and friends.

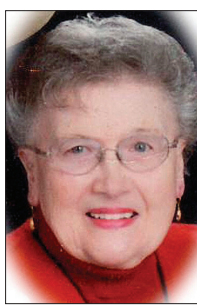

Jan and Jim would move one more time, to Pendleton, Oregon, where they had a ranch just outside of Rieth, and transferred membership to the First Christian Church of Pendleton. Here, Jan discovered a love of the rodeo. She and Jim joined the Main Street Cowboys, where she was part of the auxiliary "Side Saddlers", serving the Pendleton Round-Up.

She was proud to receive a trophy for "Side Saddler of the Year" in 1988. She was also a wife/member of the VFW Let'er Buck Post 922, and the White Eagles Grange. Jan was a "cat lady" and usually had one or more in the house being hand-raised for one reason or another, but her delight was her grandchildren, and later, great-grandchildren, often having them for extended stays in her home. Jan was fun-loving, with a quiet quick wit. She was outgoing and loved to "fuss" over people, making them feel special. She enjoyed hosting friends and family, and serving her community.

After 66 years of marriage, Jim passed away in 2015. Jan was able to stay at the ranch until 2018, at which time she went to live with her sister, JoAnn, in Evans, Washington, where she lived the remainder of her life. Jan kept in touch with friends and family until she went home to her Lord and Savior.

The family is planning a memorial in Pendleton, Oregon, sometime in July. Please visit the online memorial and sign her guestbook at www.danekasfuneralchapel.com. Danekas Funeral Chapel & Crematory have been entrusted in her care.

OBITUARIES

John Allen Hinz

Hermiston
September 26, 1970 — January 5, 2021

John Allen Hinz, 50, of Hermiston, Oregon, passed unexpectedly on January 5, 2021. With a final joke for the doctors, God welcomed him home.

Born September 26, 1970, to Walter Vernon and Sharen Peine Hinz. He grew up in Irrigon, Oregon, where he graduated in 1988 from Riverside High School. After graduation, John stayed local working the last 16 years as a Crane operator/Tankerman at Tidewater Barge Lines Inc. John was a company prankster. (Hopefully, popsicle delivery will continue by another big-hearted delivery driver).

In 2006, John chose and married Gina and began his own family. His children Callie, Chase and Kira, were shown incredible love. He loved his shadows. He was always the Dad he did not have to be. Being a Dad made him an amazing man. He added to his pack of children he loved and called his own as their bonus Dad, Mason, Jarin, Laney, Natalie, Allana and Allison.

John was one of a kind with a brilliant warm smile and kind loving heart. He loved boating, snowmobiling, motorcycle rides, feet in the sand, the sun, good music, hanging at the river, family and friends, sharing that infectious smile, and draining a tall cold one. He joked/bragged about being everyone's favorite.

He leaves behind his wife,

Hinz

Gina; children, Callie and (Kenny) Bradshaw, Chase, and Kira; parents, Walt (Nancy) Hinz, Sharen Peine Hinz; his siblings, Stacey Hinz, Richard

(Gina) Hinz, Teresa (Al) Hannon, and Teena (Mark) Griffin, who he could never get enough time with. Laughter, fun, and great times were always part of their adventures. John's nieces and nephews were a source of love and pride for him, Richard, Ryan, Caitlyn, Travis, Garret, Chianne and Cierra. Tori, who called him Uncle Daddy (he was humbled by this endearment). He loved his great nieces and nephews. His love lives on in every heart and picture with them. His second family, The Coffman's, along with large extended family.

Preceded in death by brother, Mark J. Hinz; niece, Chianne Gaede; and both sets of grandparents, Otto and Connie Hinz, and John and Dorothy Peine.

John's sister is hosting graveside services at 11 a.m. Saturday April 3, 2021, at the Echo Memorial Cemetery, in Echo, Oregon. A celebration of life with refreshments will follow at his mother's home in Irrigon.

Gina, Callie, Kenny, Chase and Kira will host a memorial in June when the weather warms. We will be in touch with family and friends regarding arrangements.

No contributions: Please do a kind deed, give a (John smile) you never know who needs it.

Steven Jeffrey Williams

Pendleton
July 6, 1954 — March 25, 2021

Steven Jeffrey Williams was born July 6, 1954, to Donald Bruce Williams and Antoinette Conner Williams in Pendleton, Oregon.

He was the seventh born of nine children. His siblings included, Sue Lovejoy, JT Williams, David Williams, and Lisa Williams. He was preceded in death by parents, Donald B. Williams and Antoinette C. Williams; sisters, Deanna Williams and Sara Surface; and brothers, Bruce Anthony Williams and Donald Barry Williams.

He was uncle to many nephews and nieces, Jesse Minthorn, Tayts Scott, Donald Scott and Nancy Turner (deceased); nephew/brother, Tony Surface; CJ Wheeler, Lexi Wheeler-Pate, Paul Wheeler and Neil Wheeler. Loretta Williams, Crayton Williams, Tashina Williams, Robin Minthorn, Eagle Williams and Ollocut Williams. Cameron Shawl, Joel Mayoral, Luis Mayoral and Shanae Williams.

Steve enjoyed going to Washat services and visiting with friends and relatives. He attended Chemawa Indian School in Salem, Oregon. He received certification as a Mason. He was a traditional dancer, drummer, and singer. His work history included being a firefighter, fisherman, and construction worker. He enjoyed sharing his quick wit with all his nephews and nieces. He was a storyteller, did magic tricks, played harmonica, demonstrated his hacky sack and card playing skills.

A dedicated Trailblazer and Chiefs fan. An early riser and always a step ahead in getting to the yard sales.

He was such a loving person. Easy to talk to and had so many stories to share. So many memories left of going to Uncle Steve's place. He will be greatly missed.

A family Dressing Ceremony was held at 10 a.m. on Friday, March 26, 2021, at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop. On Saturday, March 27, at 9:30 a.m. there will be a funeral procession from the funeral home to Olney Cemetery for a 10 a.m. graveside service.

Share online condolences with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com.
