for both teams, which are grateful to have had a season. "The great thing is we get to play in April," Hansell said. "This has been one of the longest seasons for any football player, going back to last fall. A lot of hard work by a lot of people just to get us on the field. Our kids don't care if we are playing Thursday, Friday or Saturday, they are just excited to play with each other and represent something bigger than themselves."

GRANT UNION AT

STANFIELD — The Tigers are putting their three-game win streak on the line against the Prospectors in a 3 p.m. April 9 contest.

Grant Union (2-2) is coming off a 34-28 win over Umatilla, while Stanfield ran wild on Riverside 60-6.

The Tigers will be without Gator Goodrich, who was injured last week, but the small team has learned to adapt in the wake of adversity.

IONE/ARLINGTON AT PILOT ROCK — The Rockets (3-2) are on a three-game win streak, while the Cardinals (0-4) still are looking for their first win.

The Thursday, April 8, game will be a tough one for Ione/Arlington, which lost quarterback Hunter Padberg to an injury. Taylor Rollins stepped in for Padberg last week and generated 219 yards of offense.

MCLOUGHLIN AT RIVERSIDE — The Pirates (0-3) and Pioneers (1-3) have taken their lumps this season, making this matchup an interesting one on April 9.

The Pioneers have lost their last two games to Stanfield and Weston-McEwen.

against Hood River, and if we execute and fly round like we have, I think we match up well with their offense," Davis said.

One aspect of the game that gives Davis pause for concern is Summit's kicking game.

Instead of punting or going for it on fourth down, the Storm has a weapon in kicker in Soren McKee, who set a school record by booting a 50-yard field goal last week.

"He is a special talent," Davis said. "Every kickoff is through the end zone. Their kicking game is something we haven't seen all year. That is a weapon we generally don't see at the high school level. He stood out on film.

He can put points on the board. That is something we have to prepare for."

The matchup with Summit is the final game of the season for the Bucks, who are ready to throw caution to the wind.

"We are prepared for a close one," Davis said. "All seat belts are off. I'm looking forward to it. I'm looking forward to the last hurrah with these eight seniors."
