Hermiston
May 10, 1935 — November 19, 2020

Pastor James Dean "Jim" Simpson was born on May 10, 1935, in Los Angeles, California, to parents John Porter Simpson and Wanda Wilsey Simpson. He died on November 19, 2020, at his home in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 85 years.

Simpson

Jim was one of four children to this union and a fifth, Debbie, was born in later years to his mother's second marriage. Early years were spent in the Siskiyou Mountains of Northern California where Jim's father worked a gold claim near the Klamath River 20 miles downstream for Interstate 5.

When WWII began, the family moved to Richmond, California, to work in the Kaiser Shipyards. Later the family moved to Alaska where his father worked on the Alcan Highway. After his death the family returned to California, living in Visalia near family. Jim attended school there until the seventh grade.

In 1947, Jim's mother married Ray Evans and then family moved to Banning, California, for a year and then to Clinton, Missouri. Jim worked on a farm and a dairy before the family moved to Dallas, Texas, in 1951. At the age of 16, Jim left home and found a job and lodging, continuing his high school education in Carrollton, Texas. He worked night shift at Lone Star Ceramics until autumn of 1954 when he entered Texas Christian University to study Christian ministry.

Summers were spent working at the YMCA and two summers in Glacier National Park as part of the ministry in the national parks. During this time Jim climbed most of the major peaks in the park. In 1960 he earned his BA at TCU and began his graduate work.

During graduate school at Brite Divinity School, Jim began a six-year youth and associate ministry at Lufkin, Texas. In 1960, he married Dolores Simpson of Fort Worth, Texas. Four children were born of that marriage: Paul Golden, Jennifer Clotile, Ernest Lloyd and Elana Ann. The family served Texas ministries in Lufkin, Pine Tree, Marshall, McKinney and Brownwood until 1981 when they relocated to Farmington, New Mexico. Jim served as pastor at Bethany Christian Church and his radio "Sonspots" helped grow the church by over 50 members a year for six consecutive years. In 1988, Jim and Dolores moved to Kalispell, Montana, to serve at Central Christian Church.

After a separation and divorce, Jim relocated to California in 1990, where he served as pastor of the First Christian Church of Vista, California. He married Henrietta Marie Shropshire of Lakeside, Montana. In 1997, Jim and Henrietta were called to serve the First Christian Church of Hermiston, Oregon, where he ministered until retiring in 2002. Henrietta passed
