

COMMUNITY BRIEFING

Whitman Mission seeking YCC applicants

WALLA WALLA, Wash. — Whitman Mission National Historic Site is recruiting up to two individuals for its Youth Conservation Corps (YCC) program. The 8-week program starts Monday, June 13, and ends Friday, Aug. 7, 2021. Enrollees work 40 hours per week at $13.69 per hour.

YCC applicants must be at least 15 years of age by June 13, 2021, but not turn 19 until after Aug. 7, 2021. The parental consent portion of the application must be completed and signed by the applicant's parent(s) or legal guardian. Applications must be submitted no later than Tuesday, May 30, 2021.

Applicants must have or be able to obtain a work permit as required under the laws of their state before the first day of work; have a Social Security number or have placed an application for one; and be willing to work hard and participate in most work projects.

The Youth Conservation Corps is a federal program employing youths ages 15 to 18 in conservation work on public lands. Participants develop a better understanding and appreciation of natural and cultural resources, park maintenance needs, and park interpretation during their participation in the program.

For more information and an application, call Whitman Mission National Historic Site at 509-522-6360, ext. 2056, or email Merton_heidenrich@nps.gov.

OCA offers conference scholarships

SALEM — The Oregon Cattlemen's Association (OCA) has announced the opportunity for six young ranchers to attend the OCA Mid-Year Conference on July 11-13 at the Salishan Coastal Lodge. This scholarship opportunity is available to young ranchers interested in learning more about the work of the Oregon Cattlemen's Association.

The scholarship will cover the expense of lodging and event registration.

Candidates must be able to attend the full conference and be willing to participate in all facets; the conference is an opportunity for young ranchers to immerse themselves in the work and mission of the Oregon Cattlemen's Association for the future of the cattle industry.

The application can be found at www.orcattle.com. Any questions may be addressed to the OCA office at 503-361-8941.
