She holds the Idaho indoor shot put record at 56-5/4, and the outdoor mark at 52-8/4. The records have stood for more than 10 years.

She also ranks fifth on the all-time discus list with a toss of 166-0.

Though she was All-American thrower, Mannucci has spent her time this season working with the hurdlers. In her third year with the program, she does whatever she can to help the team.

In the two years she competed against Strot at state, they were cordial with one another. Now that they work together as PE teachers, they have become close friends.

"It's been really cool," said Mannucci.

Sarajane Rosenberg Gutierrez

Growing up in Pendleton, the Bucks were Hermiston's biggest rival. Extra security was needed for basketball and football games in case things got out of hand.

"It was a different time back then," she said. "There was a rivalry — you didn't lose to Hermiston. It isn't as strong anymore."

Now, Gutierrez feels comfortable in her Hermiston purple, even though her name is etched in the Pendleton record books.

She holds the school long jump record with a leap of 18-9, and her triple jump record is 39-6.

Gutierrez also played volleyball for the Bucks, and was inducted into the Pendleton Linebacker's Club Hall of Fame for track and volleyball in 2019.

In addition to her two state titles in the triple jump, she also was second at state in 2004 in the 100 meters with a time of 12.44 seconds.

She also holds the Hermiston Kiwanis Invite record in the triple jump at 37-09, set in 2003.

Gutierrez began her college track career at University of Idaho, but a back injury forced her to redshirt, and the following year she transferred to Western Oregon University.

"It took me quite a while to come back from that," Gutierrez said of the injury.

At WOU, she ranks ninth all-time on the indoor long jump list with a leap of 17-6/4, and is ninth on the outdoor triple jump list at 37-3/4.

After college, Gutierrez got a job as a second grade teacher in Hermiston.

"My first two years of teaching second grade, now those kids are in high school and some are on the track team," she said.

Gutierrez gave up teaching years ago, and now owns Rebellious Rose, an online clothing and accessories store. But she never lost her love for track and field. Coaching helps her get her fix.

"I occasionally take a few trips down the runway," she said. "I CrossFit a lot. I feel like I'm in better shape now than I was in my college years."
