sophomore is also expected to play an important role in first-year defensive coordinator Tim DeRuyter's scheme.

"My football knowledge is growing every day," Hill said of the transition to playing for DeRuyter and new safeties/nickel coach Marcel Yates. "I'm starting to see the concepts easier. I feel like it's been pretty easy, to be honest."

McKinley was third on the team with 41 tackles. The savvy sophomore also had an interception, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and two passes defended.

Happle turned the UCLA game around by returning an interception for a touchdown on the final play of the first half. Bennett had two tackles for loss and a sack last season. Stephens has been making plays consistently this spring.

"On the back end, I think our guys did a nice job developing," DeRuyter said. "We've got speed, we've recruited a bunch of length and some of the new guys coming in have been impressive so far."

Manning was a five-star recruit in the 2020 class,

Oregon safety Steve Stephens IV (7) picks off a pass intended for tight end Moliiki Mataavao (8) during practice at Autzen Stadium in Eugene on April 17, 2021. Stephens is among the young Oregon players competing for added playing time this fall with much of the Ducks' secondary departing for the NFL.

who was limited to one game due to injury as a true freshman. Bridges started out at safety, but is now turning heads at cornerback entering his third year in the program.

"Trikweze is probably one of my surprises of the spring. I think he has done a really good job in terms of making his presence felt," Chance said. "I think what Dontae realized (last season) is college football moves very fast, and sometimes what you see in those situations is confirming what your own personal ability is. I think he saw, 'Hey, I belong.'"

Davies and safeties Jeffrey Bassa and Daymon David are among the early enrollees determined to make an immediate impact. Other members of the 2021 recruiting class expected to join the secondary this summer are cornerbacks Avante Dickerson and Darren Barkins.

Oregon has practices on Thursday, May 6, and Friday, May 7, before the spring game on Saturday, May 8, at Autzen Stadium (2 p.m., Pac-12 Networks).
