COMMUNITY BRIEFING

Living History shares about Fred Stine

WALLA WALLA — Charles Saranto will portray rags-to-riches businessman Fred Stine during a Living History presentation at Fort Walla Walla Museum. The event is Sunday, May 30, at 2 p.m. in the museum's Pioneer Village.
 Fred Stine arrived in Walla Walla in 1862 with no more than the clothes on his back and 75 cents in his pocket. Earning the trust of local residents, he set up a lucrative blacksmith shop, serving the needs of miners making their way to Idaho's goldfields, pioneers from the Oregon Trail and the military at Fort Walla Walla. He eventually built the largest brick hotel in the Washington Territory.
 Fort Walla Walla Museum is located at 755 Myra Road, Walla Walla. It's open Friday through Sunday from noon to 5 p.m. Regular admission is $9 for adults, $8 seniors and students, and $4 for ages 6-12. For more information, call 509-525-7703 or visit www.fwvm.org.

Local women earn agriculture scholarships

HERMISTON — The Eastern Chapter of Oregon Women for Agriculture has awarded its 2021 scholarships to three outstanding students who are pursuing agricultural degrees. These scholarships support the next generation of women in agriculture.

Elizabeth Hanson of La Grande won the first place scholarship of $1,000. Hanson plans to major in business and agricultural sciences at Eastern Oregon University/Oregon State University.
Ashley Durning of Pilot Rock was the second place winner and earned a scholarship of $750. Durning plans to major in the agricultural education master's program at Oregon State University.
Morgan Orem of Heppner was the third place winner and received a $500 scholarship. Orem has plans to study agricultural sciences at either Texas A&M University or Oklahoma State University.

Locals named to SNHU President's List

MANCHESTER, NH — Five local students were named to the winter semester 2021 President's List at Southern New Hampshire University (SNHU). The winter term runs from January to May.
 Earning a place on the list were Pendleton alums Franklin Lewis, Jenny Peters and Jennifer Sims, and Hermiston graduates Jocelle Quinn and Holly Kress.
 Full-time students who have earned a minimum GPA of 3.7 and above are named to the President's List. Full-time status is achieved by earning 12 credits; undergraduate day students must earn 12 credits in fall or spring semester, and online students must earn 12 credits in either EW1/EW2, EW3/EW4, or EW5/EW6.

Bredfield named to McPherson honor roll

McPHERSON, Kan. — McPherson College, a four-year private college located in central Kansas, named Heppner's Zachary Bredfield to its spring 2021 Honor Roll.
 To qualify for the honor roll, students must be attending full time and earn a grade point average of 3.55 or higher during the previous term.

OBITUARY

Karen Jane Bryson

Pendleton
May 14, 1942 — November 2, 2019

Karen Jane Bryson passed away on November 2, 2019, at St. Anthony Hospital. She was born May 14, 1942, in Wallowa County, Oregon, to parents Charlie Tinsley and Rena (Winters) Tinsley.
 Karen married Patrick Leroy Bryson, her high school sweetheart, in the spring of 1962. They have two daughters, Theresa Bryson Stinger and Lorrie Jean Pearce. She loved being "Grandma" to her three grandchildren Ashley Stinger, MacKenzie Stinger and Zachary Warren Pearce.

Bryson

Karen was a graduate of Weston-McEwen High School and Blue Mountain Community College.
 Mom was always on the go, retiring from Eastern Oregon Training Center after 40 years of dedicated service. She loved working with the residents in the center, and was known as "Mama Bryson." She was a strong advocate for ongoing improvements to the lives of the residents.
 That caring dedication carried on to her own family. She rarely slowed down, or lost her fun and hysterical sense of humor, even when she battled breast cancer, which she took on and beat. In her retirement she loved spending time at the casino, gardening, and treasure finding at thrift shops, where she gave her finds amazing transformations with her creative crafting.

 Preceding Karen in passing was her father, Charlie Tinsley, her mother Rena Winters, and brothers James Tinsley, Michael Tinsley and Charles J. Tinsley.
 She is survived by daughters Theresa Stinger and Lorrie Pearce; brothers Lawrence Tinsley and Delbert Tinsley; and sister Sue Widner.
 Karen leaves several grandchildren, one great-grandson, and many nieces and nephews. After raising her daughters in Athena, Oregon, she moved to Pendleton, Oregon, where she lived for the remainder of her life.
 In a celebration of life service, Karen will be laid to rest with her mother and father in the Athena, Oregon, cemetery on June 5, 2021, at 11 a.m.
