

COMMUNITY BRIEFING

Old Iron Show gears up for its 17th year

PENDLETON — Displays featuring old iron engines, steam engines, antique cars, vintage farm implements and other machinery from bygone eras will fill Roy Raley Park this weekend, June 4-6.

In its 17th year, the Umatilla County Historical Society is presenting the Old Iron Show. The free event is Friday and Saturday from 8 a.m. to dusk and Sunday from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. The park is at 1205 S.W. Court Ave., Pendleton. The event is free and open to the public.

For more information, contact 541-276-0012, info@heritagestationmuseum.org or visit www.heritagestationmuseum.org.

7 youth receive Happy Canyon R-Up scholarships

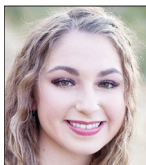

Burke

Duchek

Kendrick

McFetridge

Neistadt

Schreier

Waggoner

Receiving $1,000 scholarships from Happy Canyon were Burke, Kendrick, Neistadt, Schreier and Waggoner and Pendleton's Delaney Duchek.

Vatican items on display at Hermiston church

HERMISTON — Sacred relics from the Vatican collection are featured during a teaching exposition at Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church.

More than 150 relics will be present, some as old as 2,000 years. Among the treasures will be relics of the Twelve Apostles, St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. There also will be a portion of the Veil of Our Lady and one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world.

Treasures of the Church is Thursday, June 3, at 6 p.m. at the church, 565 W. Hermiston Ave., Hermiston. Those in attendance will be able to examine each relic.

Those planning to attend are invited to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards) and pictures of ill friends/family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession. The exposition is directed by Father Carlos Martins. For more information, visit www.TreasuresOfTheChurch.com.

Antonio Sierra/East Oregonian, File
A row of tractors are lined up at Roy Raley Park in Pendleton as a part of the 16th Old Iron Show. This year's event runs Friday through Sunday, June 4-6, 2021, and features old iron engines, antique cars other machinery from bygone eras.

Pendleton deals in Shamrock Cardroom

PENDLETON — People are invited to experience what it was like to have a drink in a late-1800s underground bar.

Pendleton Underground Tours will open the Shamrock Cardroom for 13 Saturdays from 4-7 p.m. During the June 5 opening event, tastings will feature Lewis and Clark Bourbon Whiskey by Hood River Distillery and specialty drinks using Lewis and Clark. Staff will be in period clothing and will conduct an evening adult-only (must be 21) tour beginning at 5 p.m. through the Underground portion of the tour.

The cost is $20 per person, which includes one free drink. Space is limited. Reservations must be made and paid for in advance for the tour.

To go on this tour you must not get offended easily, can handle some crude and foul language, not believe everything you hear, and be able to relax and have fun. Those not interested in the tour are invited to come down and have a drink before the music starts on Main Street at 6 p.m.

Entrance to the Shamrock Cardroom is on Southwest First Street at the staircase under the awning. For more information or to make a reservation, call 541-276-0730.

Pendleton Comes Alive with Main Street concert

PENDLETON — Nashville recording artist Cale Moon is the featured entertainer for the upcoming Pendleton Comes Alive Concert.

Presented by the Pendleton Chamber of Commerce and Pendleton Downtown Association, the free event is Saturday, June 5, from 6-10 p.m. on Main Street. People are encouraged to bring a lawn chair and enjoy an evening of country music.

Several years ago the Benton City, Washington, musician hit the road with his family in a 40-foot recreational vehicle to pursue his dream. Moon continues to perform everywhere from small clubs, main stages and rodeo arenas to wineries, beer gardens and cowboy churches.

For information about the event, call the chamber at 541-276-7411. For more about Moon, visit www.facebook.com/calemoonofficial.

Oldies Night returns to Milton-Freewater

MILTON-FREEWATER — After a 14-month hiatus because of the global pandemic, Oldies Night in Milton-Freewater is returning.

BJ the DJ will spin tunes featuring rock stars of the 1950s. In addition, he'll provide information about the performers, songwriters, and how it all evolved. The free event is Saturday, June 5, from 7-10 p.m. at Wesley United Methodist Church, 816 S. Main St., Milton-Freewater.

For more information, contact Bob Jones at dubuquer70@gmail.com or 541-938-7028.

Drive-in concert features Florida Georgia Line

MILTON-FREEWATER — The upcoming Encore Drive-In Concert features Florida Georgia Line. The country duo of Tyler Hubbard and Brian Kelley released their debut single, "Cruise," in 2012. At the time, it was the best-selling country digital download, remaining on the top of the chart for 24 weeks.

The never-before-seen show was recorded live, exclusively for the one-night only event at drive-ins and outdoor venues, including the M-F Drive-In Theater. Tickets are now on sale for the Saturday, June 12, event. The gates open at 7 p.m. with the concert film being shown at 8 p.m.

The M-F Drive-In Theater is at 84322 Highway 11, Milton-Freewater. The cost is $74 per vehicle, which can have up to six people.

For tickets or more information, click the link on the drive-in's Facebook page. In addition, concert merchandise is available on the ticket website.

Milton-Freewater grad earns bachelor's degree

WALLA WALLA — Milton-Freewater native Carlos Angel Jr. received this bachelor's of arts degree from Whitman College on May 23. A graduate of McLoughlin High School, Angel Jr. graduated with a degree in sociology.

Founded in 1882, Whitman College is a private, independent, co-educational, nonsectarian residential liberal arts and sciences undergraduate college in Walla Walla. The college is home to 1,500 undergraduate students.

Wildhorse Resort &amp; Casino to hold Hermiston job fair

HERMISTON — Representatives from Wildhorse Resort & Casino are holding a hiring event in Hermiston to find enthusiastic individuals who want to join Team Wild!

Prospective employees can learn about a wide range of opportunities, as well as potential pay and benefits available. The event is Thursday, June 3, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at McKenzie Park, 320 S. First St., Hermiston.

For more information, visit www.wildhorseresort.com/careers.

—EO Media Group

Morrow County Cultural Coalition announces grant recipients

East Oregonian

MORROW COUNTY — The Morrow County Cultural Coalition, supported by Oregon's Cultural Trust Foundation, recently granted 2020 awards made to Morrow County organizations. In addition, it announced it is accepting applications for 2021. The 2020 grant recipients include:

•Inland Northwest Musicians, to assist local musicians in sustaining their ability to continue to provide free concerts to the citizens of Morrow County following the COVID-19 pandemic shutdown.

•Heppner Community Foundation, for collecting, reproducing and displaying historical photographs of ranching, logging, farming and local history in the refurbished historic Gilliam and Bisbee Building.

•Oregon Trail Library District, for efforts in improving access to information and services regarding arts and crafts videos and increasing digital offerings for patrons to access at home.

•Morrow County Historical Society, to help with the costs of printing the Morrow County Chronicles.

Applications for the 2021 cultural-based activities in Morrow County now are being accepted. Projects supported in the past have included art displays, historical library books, cultural entertainment and events, children's activities and musical workshops.

Grants can be awarded for up to 50% of the total project cost. For complete guidelines and application forms, contact Jaylene Papineau at 541-676-5630 or jpapineau@co.morrow.or.us or visit www.co.morrow.or.us/clerk and scroll down to Morrow County Cultural Coalition Information. Applications must be submitted by Aug. 1, 2021. For more information, visit the Oregon Cultural Trust site at www.culturaltrust.org.

The local coalition is seeking volunteers for the committee. Anyone interested in making a donation to the Oregon Cultural Trust or participating on the committee is encouraged to contact Papineau or call Melissa Lindsay at 541-561-0234.

VISIT US ON THE WEB

EastOregonian.com

NORMAL

THE CHOICE IS YOURS

UC
HEALTH
Building a Healthy Community