COMMUNITY BRIEFING

Open house features Chinese history

JOHN DAY — Archaeologist with the Oregon Chinese Diaspora Project will hold an open house Saturday, July 3, from 10:30 a.m. to noon at the Kam Wah Chung State Heritage Site, 125 N.W. Canton St., John Day.

Artifacts and exhibits will be on display and archaeologists studying 19th century Chinese gold mining sites and the John Day Chinatown will be discussing their recent work and answering questions.

This event takes place between two large projects on the Malheur National Forest: the Passport in Time Project and the Southern Oregon University Laboratory of Anthropology.

The PIT is a nationwide Forest Service volunteer program where interested volunteers pair up with archaeologists and work together on heritage projects on public lands. Most of the Oregon Chinese Diaspora projects on the Malheur National Forest have benefited from PIT volunteers contributions.

All aboard at Faith Presbyterian Bible school

HERMISTON — A Rocky Mountain Railroad Adventure is planned as part of the vacation Bible school at Faith Presbyterian Church, 1005 S.E. Ninth St., Hermiston. Children do not have to attend the church to participate.

Children 3 years old (and toilet-trained) through fifth graders are invited to climb aboard the train Monday, July 5, through Friday, July 9. Registration begins at 8 a.m. daily and the boarding time is 9 a.m. The session will chug along until noon each day. The ride includes Bible stories, songs, games and crafts.
