About Public Notices

Public notices inform citizens about the activities of government bodies —such as budgets and public hearings, upcoming meetings and elections —so that citizens can make their opinions known before an action is taken or a rule or law is made. They also include information about foreclosures, unclaimed and forfeited property, estate claims and probate notices, summons, and calls for bids.

COLUMBIA RIVER INTER-TRIBAL FISH COMMISSION

Executive Director
Closes: Aug 31, 2021
Based in Portland, Oregon CRITFC is looking for an inspiring, creative, and resourceful individual to serve as Executive Director of the organization. S/he will be responsible for the leadership, administration, and management of the organization and will lead a team of department managers in accomplishing CRITFC's goals and priorities as set by leadership from its member tribes. CRITFC offers competitive compensation, 401k for eligible employees, excellent benefits, flexible work policies, and a collaborative work environment. We also provide professional development opportunities, promote from within, and have a Native hiring preference as part of our commitment to building tribal expertise, workforce development, and education. As a result, you will find a culture that supports and inspires fulfilling achievement in the protection of the natural world and the tribal cultural connection to it.

CRITPD-Police Officer
Closes: July 31, 2021
Based in Hood River Oregon, the CRITFC Police Department provides 24-hour policing focused on the 150 mile stretch of the Columbia River from Bonneville to McNary Dams and adjacent lands by vehicle and boat. The department ensures adherence to all treaty fishing regulations, safety and emergency response, protection of archeological sites, and full police services to the 31 tribal fishing sites.

CRITPD-Dispatcher
Closes: July 31, 2021
Dispatchers are based in Hood River and are the communication link for all incoming calls to the police department. General business calls, calls for assistance, complaints, and general information for the public are answered and forwarded by the dispatcher. The position works rotating shifts to support the round the clock police services provided by the Columbia River Inter-Tribal Police Department.

Seasonal In-Lieu and TFAS Maintenance Worker
Open until filled
The position provides the maintenance of the Tribal In-Lieu / Treaty Fishing Access Sites along the Columbia River during the Summer and Fall this work involves a variety of trade practices such as painting, plumbing, carpentry, masonry, electrical, and custodial work to sanitize and provide safety of all facilities on every site. Maintenance workers will use hand and power tools to accomplish this work.

All positions are permanent full-time unless otherwise noted. Please access CRITFC website www.critfc.org Careers for complete job description, minimum skills, application requirements, deadlines, and pay information.
