OBITUARIES

Floyd L. Holady, D.M.D.Lake Oswego
Oct. 26, 1924 — Aug. 12, 2021

Floyd L. Holady, of Lake Oswego, Oregon, died Thursday, Aug. 12, 2021, of bone-marrow cancer. He lived out his days at home, surrounded by his children.

Dr. Holady was born Oct. 26, 1924, near Mabton, Washington, the son of Myrtle Belle (Burgess) and William Edgar Holady. He was the youngest of four siblings.

In WWII, he served in the Navy as a corpsman in the Pacific. After his discharge, Floyd rejoined the family logging business, in Ukiah, Oregon. In 1947, he married Celia Arrieta of La Grande, Oregon, and she convinced him to go to college. Together they entered Eastern Oregon College of Education in 1948 and graduated with teaching degrees in 1952.

Floyd and Celia taught in Pendleton at Lincoln Elementary from 1953 to 1958. During the summers, Floyd obtained his master's degree in education. Since childhood, Floyd had often thought about dentistry as a career so, in the fall of 1958, Floyd began dental school in Portland. He graduated in 1962. Floyd and Celia returned to Pendleton in 1962, where Floyd started his practice. Celia taught, and together they raised their five children.

In 1972, Floyd and Celia moved the family to Tigard, Oregon, and Floyd established a new practice. He practiced in Tigard until retiring in 1989. At the same time, Floyd resumed his teaching career, serving as an adjunct professor at the Oregon Health & Science University Dental School from 1972 to 2000.

Starting in 2000, Floyd and Celia began to travel the world. Sadly, their trips were cut short when cancer struck Celia. She took her final trip, to Heaven, in 2009. On Aug. 12, Floyd took his final trip and joined "Mrs. Lovely" in the presence of their Lord and Savior.

Dr. Holady is survived by daughters Kim M. Baggett (James), Kaye Holady (David Weiss), and Jill A. Holady-Rauch (Steven Rauch); sons Guy Alan Holady and Mark John Holady (Monica); and grandchildren Jennifer L. Rich, Ryan J. Baggett, Christina L. Kunkel, Kathryn R. Holady and Grace E. Holady.

Dr. Holady was preceded in death by his wife Celia, his parents, and his siblings.

Services will be Sept. 1, 2021, at 3 p.m. at Southwest Bible Church, 14605 S.W. Weir Road, Beaverton, OR 97007.

Thomas Andrew McGillCanby
Dec. 24, 1952 — Aug. 14, 2021

Thomas Andrew McGill, 68, went to be with the Lord on Aug. 14, 2021. He was born in Danville, Illinois, on Dec. 24, 1952, to James and Ida McGill.

Saving the best for last, Tom was the youngest of seven.

Tom spent his childhood moving across the country, but called Canby, Oregon, his home for the last 36 years. He retired from Stanley Hydraulic Tools after 31 years and spent his retirement doing the things he loved: shooting, tinkering in his shop, and spending time with his family and friends.

Tom married Teresa Taylor in 1975 and together they raised two children whom he prayed for daily. He was a man of profound faith; he accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior at a very young age, and he walked with God daily.

He is survived by his wife, Teresa; two children, Mindy (husband Travis) McCraw and Corey (wife Karen); three brothers, Perry (Sandra), Roy and David (Dorothy); two sisters, Barbara Jessmer and Janice (Don)

Potter; and four grandchildren.

Amy Jeanne PearsonPendleton
Jan. 22, 1957 — Aug. 7, 2021

Amy Jeanne Pearson was born in 1957 in San Jose, California, the last of five siblings. Her father's medical practice moved the family to the redwood mountain town of Garberville in Northern California two years later, and eventually to Moro Bay where Amy graduated high school.

She met Matt Henry, her husband for 42 years, in Santa Cruz, California, in 1979 where she obtained a Bachelor of Science in psychology. She and Matt fell deeply in love, married in 1981 and moved to Eugene, Oregon, in 1992.

While there, they felt God's call to enter congregational pastoral ministry and they entered the American Baptist Seminary of the West in Berkeley, where they received Master of Divinity degrees to become ordained clergy. Amy graduated the top of her class in 1998, awarded the highest GPA in her graduating class of 30.

She and Matt were called to serve United Methodist Churches in Milton-Freewater, Weston and Pendleton, Oregon, and Boise, Idaho, from 2000-11. They resettled back in Pendleton in 2011 where Amy became a chaplain for St. Anthony Hospice until her disease made it impossible for her to continue.

During her brief life, Amy touched hundreds of lives, blessing and healing and reintegrating broken souls and scarred dignities and lost spirits looking to find their way home. At the head of this line stands her husband Matt, who loves her forever, misses her forever, waits for her forever and who was fortunate to be married to a wife he never fully deserved.

Amy was pre-deceased by her parents, John and Ruth Mitchell Pearson, and survived by husband Matt Henry; sisters Karen (Wayne) Stayer, Jan (David) Robertson and Margit (Art) Willey; brother Robert (Mary) Pearson; and many loving nieces, nephews and friends.

A funeral Mass will be held at 11 a.m. at St. Andrews Mission Church on the reservation on Saturday, Aug. 28, with a lunch to follow.

Matt deeply thanks Vange John Memorial Hospice staff; Javonte, Alana and all the nursing staff at Juniper House; and their friends and family for getting them through this process.

Amy was the best soulmate and friend anyone could ever possibly have. She will be deeply missed until we get to dance once more.

Gerald 'Jerry' BrogSalem
Aug. 13, 2021

Jerry Brog of Salem, Oregon, unexpectedly passed away on Aug. 13 at the relatively young age of 90. His energy and enjoyment of life seemed like it would keep him around for much longer, but alas, it was not to be.

He leaves his devoted wife of 68 years, Mary, and two sons, Steve and Alan. Jerry grew up around the Hopewell area of Oregon on various dairy farms over his younger years and eventually graduated from Oregon State University, joining the OSU Extension Service where he worked with his colleagues to support improvements in agriculture for most of his working life. After working around the state, he settled in Pendleton and became county chairman in Umatilla County, eventually becoming a regional supervisor for the dry side of the state. He was a Beaver through and through, despite later moving to Pullman in a supervisory position and spending his final working years at WSU rooting for the Cougars when it did not really make a difference.

He was a dedicated sailor for much of his life and the family went through progressively larger and larger sailboats only switching to a trawler for the final boat when it was just too much work for him and Mary to drive the boats together through the waters of the San Juan and Gulf islands in Puget Sound and parts north. Few things were more fun than surfing the C&C 34 off the waves, reaching across the Strait of Juan De Fuca with Dad trimming the sails to get the most out of the boat and the rest of us hanging on.

When the weather got cold, Mom and Dad traveled the Southwest as snowbirds, pulling a trailer and camping their way from Oregon to the deserts of California and over to the Big Bend area of Texas to hide from the rain. No park, monument, or wilderness area was missed in their years of travel.

In his more sedate final years, it was hardly possible for him to meet people and not have it turn out that he knew them or some of their relatives from some work- or travel-related experiences. We have no idea how he remembered all the details of those people's names and their experiences together; it was just natural to him.

He will be missed, but lovingly remembered by his family and many friends.

Assisting is Virgil T. Golden Funeral Service of Salem, Oregon.
