BEHIND THE SCENES

Ben Lonergan/East Oregonian
Tour participants enter the Pendleton
Underground on July 1, 2021.

Take a tour any time of year

By Greg Alexander Go! Magazine

penchant for saloons and bordellos has long been an open secret — at one time 32 bars and 18 brothels operated in a four-block area. Today, a bronze statue of Stella Darby, the town's favorite madam, graces Main Street.

But back in the day, well-todo patrons couldn't risk any public association with her. Fortunately, a series of convenient tunnels just below street level helped keep illicit trysts hush-hush.

CONTINUED ON PAGE 19

2020 Auburn Avenue Baker City, Oregon

www.crossroads-arts.org

541.523.5369

Exhibition on display Friday, August 6 through Saturday, August 28

Featuring Amy VanGaasbeck and Slade Elbert

FIRST FRIDAY AT CROSSROADS

REFLECTIONS

Crossroads is open Monday through Saturday from 10:00am to 5:00pm