

'IN A LANDSCAPE' RETURNS TO SUMPTER SEPT. 3-4

SUMPTER — Hunter Noack is returning to Baker County for two performances of "In a Landscape: Classical Music in the Wild." His shows are set for 5:30 p.m. Sept. 3 and 4 at the Sumpter Dredge.

Concert tickets are free for Baker County residents, or $30 for nonresidents. Special to these concerts is a bonus round-trip train ride — tickets required — from McEwen to Sumpter aboard the Sumpter Valley Railroad. Train tickets are $25 and it departs at 4:15 p.m. Concert tickets, and train tickets, are available at www.inalandscape.org

COURTHOUSE CONCERT SERIES CONTINUES THROUGH SEPT. 2

ENTERPRISE — Presented by the Wallowa Valley Music Alliance, the Courthouse Concert Series brings live music outside on summer Thursdays. The free concerts begin at 5:30 p.m. on the lawn of the

Cameron Edens/Contributed photo

Hunter Noack presents "In a Landscape: Classical Music in the Wild" Sept. 3 and Sept. 4 at the Sumpter Dredge. Tickets, available at www.inalandscape.org, are required, but the show is free for Baker City residents.

Wallowa County Courthouse in Enterprise. The final two performances of this summer will be The Wasteland Kings on Aug. 26 and Sam Weber and Joey Carpenter on Sept. 2.

LAURA SKOVLIN AND FRIENDS ENTERTAIN ON THE DECK

WALLOWA LAKE VILLAGE — Musicians Laura Skovlin, Pat Cason and Genavie Thomas will join forces and perform as The Kitchenettes on Friday, Aug. 27, on the deck at the Wallowa Lake Lodge. Their two-hour set of toe-tapping, hand-clapping, upbeat Appalachian-style string band and traditional mountain music begins at 5 p.m.

The outdoor performance is free. The Lodge's bar will be open for Happy Hour from 3-5 p.m.

BOOK STORE (AND MORE) OPENS IN HEPPNER

HEPPNER — Flood Town Books is now open in Heppner. The shop at 413 N. Main St. is open 11 a.m.-6 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. on Friday, and 10 a.m.-3 p.m. on Saturday.

A monthly writer's workshop will begin in September on the first Saturday of each month at 8 a.m. with time set aside for optional sharing. People are invited to bring a snack or beverage and spend some time writing and gaining inspiration from others.

For more information, visit www.floodtownbooks.com or search Facebook. For questions, contact the store at 541-236-2940 or floodtownbooks@gmail.com.

Specializing in

HOMETOWN
Real Estate

Keisha Anderson
Real Estate Agent

541.910.8827

www.johnjhoward.com

Explore the ONLINE LIBRARY at www.bakerlib.org

541.523.6419

YOUR ADVENTURE AWAITS!

2400 Resort Street
Baker City, OR 97814

info@bakerlib.org