

New releases on the big screen

"HALLOWEEN KILLS" (R)

The saga of Michael Myers and Laurie Strode continues in the next thrilling chapter of the Halloween series. Features Jamie Lee Curtis

"THE LAST DUEL" (R)

This cinematic and thought-provoking drama set in the midst of the Hundred Years War explores the ubiquitous power of men, the frailty of justice and the strength and courage of one woman willing to stand alone in the service of truth. Based on actual events, the film unravels long-held assumptions about France's last sanctioned duel between Jean de Carrouges and Jacques Le Gris, two friends turned bitter rivals. Carrouges is a respected knight known for his bravery and skill on the battlefield. Le Gris is a Norman squire whose intelligence and eloquence make him one of the most admired nobles in court. When Carrouges' wife, Marguerite, is viciously assaulted by Le Gris, a charge he denies, she refuses to stay silent, stepping forward to accuse her attacker, an act of bravery and defiance that puts her life in jeopardy. The ensuing trial by combat, a grueling duel to the death, places the fate of all three in God's hands.

Paul Atreides, a brilliant and gifted young man born into a great destiny beyond his understanding, must travel to the most dangerous planet in the universe to ensure the future of his family and his people. As malevolent forces explode into conflict over the planet's exclusive supply of the most precious resource in existence — a commodity capable of unlocking humanity's greatest potential — only those who can conquer their fear will survive.

"RON'S GONE WRONG" (PG)

A wonderful walking, talking, digitally connected bot sweeps the world, becoming every kid's new best friend. But when an 11-year-old boy ends up with one that doesn't work, his attempts to teach it become a hilarious, heartwarming exploration of what real friendship means in a world of algorithms and social media.

"THE FRENCH DISPATCH" (R)

The staff of a European publication decides to publish a memorial edition highlighting the three best stories from the last decade: an artist sentenced to life imprisonment, student riots and a kidnapping resolved by a chef.

"ANTLERS" (R)

A young teacher discovers that her troubled student's father and younger brother harbor a deadly supernatural secret. Taking the boy into her care, the teacher must fight for their survival against horrors beyond imagination.

Warner Bros. Pictures
Zendaya, left, and Timothee Chalamet star in "Dune," set to open in theaters Oct. 22.

"LAST NIGHT IN SOHO" (R)

A young girl, passionate about fashion design, is mysteriously able to enter the 1960s where she encounters her idol, a dazzling wannabe singer. But 1960s London is not what it seems, and time seems to be falling apart with shady consequences.
