She was 15 and Delmer was 18. They were happily married for 70 years. After World War II (Delmer served in the Navy), they moved to Pendleton where they raised their three daughters, Delma Ruth Bracken, Marylin L. Shannon, Carlene L. Hanson, and Jerry Ray Linfoot Adams (who was given to her when he was 6 years old).

Ruth was preceded in death by her husband, Delmer, in 2007; Jerry R. Linfoot Adams, in 2019; her father, in 1936; her mother, in 1963; her sisters, Eva Sinclair, Estella Sinclair, Mary Stoll; her brother, Vern Kube; and many nieces and nephews.

She is survived by her brother, Jim Goblen (Linda), Hermiston; daughters, Delma Ruth, Marylin (Al) and Carlene; 15 grandchildren; 38 great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

She was a longtime member of the First Assembly of God Church in Pendleton and then Family Worship Center in Albany. She was a Sunday school teacher until she was 87 years of age.

She had the ministry of helping those who were struggling and in need. She genuinely loved people and always "expected the best" of her loved ones.

Her memorial service will be held at Keizer Funeral Chapel, 4365 River Road N., Keizer, Thursday, Oct. 21, 2021, at 1 p.m.

On Saturday, Oct. 23 (Ruth's 99th birthday) there will be a celebration of her life at 10 a.m. at the First Assembly of God Church, 1911 S.E. Court Ave, Pendleton. Then she will be taken to Island City Pioneer Cemetery to be buried between Delmer and her father.

OBITUARIES

Mary Alice Thompson

Nov. 26, 1931 — Oct. 13, 2021
Sumpter

Mary Alice Thompson, 89, of Sumpter, Oregon, passed away Oct. 13, 2021, surrounded by her loving family.

Mary was born on Nov. 26, 1931, in Baker City, Oregon, to Green Hudspeth and Rachel Hanby Hudspeth. Mary's early years were spent on the ranch owned by her father and uncles. The ranch is now known as the "Red Horse Ranch." She enjoyed riding horses with her siblings and living in the mountains. Mary always had a cheerful greeting for the guests coming to stay at the ranch or to go on a guided hunt.

In 1935, Mary lost her father to a hunting accident. It was at this time her mother moved the family to Sumpter, Oregon, where Mary's uncles, Wallace "Spud" Hudspeth and Earnest Hudspeth, and their families lived. Mary loved riding her horse to the McEwen School and feeding the cows on the hay wagon in the pasture that is now Phillips Reservoir.

Mary met Sam Valentine and they were married in Baker City, Oregon. They had three children together, Terry, Sammy and Jody. After this union dissolved, Mary met the love of her life, Samuel Thompson. Two more daughters were added to the family, Pam and Cindy. After living in various areas of Oregon, Mary and Samuel settled in Pendleton, Oregon.

Mary loved to dance, read and ride horses. Her children loved to listen to the stories she would tell of her childhood days. Because Mary was an avid believer that first impressions were the lasting ones, she always looked her best and taught her children the same. Once you met Mary, it was like you had known her forever.

Mary made many friends while working as a bartender. She was also a certified flagger. Mary continued working until the age of 80.

Mary was always looking for an adventure. She enjoyed camping, going to flea markets with family and attending the Pendleton Round-Up festivities. And if you were up for the challenge, Mary was always ready for that next card game.

Mary suffered many broken hearts with the loss of her son, Sammy (1989); husband, Samuel (1995); mother, Rachel (2000); daughter, Jody (2017); brother, William; and three grandsons, Brian, Cody and Hank.

She is survived by son, Terry (Kathy) Valentine, Union, Oregon; daughter, Pam (Lynn) Wiley, Pendleton, Oregon; daughter, Cindy (Mark) Mecham, Watford City, North Dakota; sisters, Jean Marrs, Joyce Pierson and Sharon Soleseng; numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren as well as nieces and nephews.

A memorial graveside service was planned for 1 p.m., Monday, Oct. 18, 2021, at the Sumpter Cemetery. A celebration of Mary's life is also planned for Memorial Day, May of 2022.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Fraternal Order of Eagles Post No. 28, Pendleton, Oregon, through Gray's West & Co. Pioneer Chapel, 1500 Dewey Ave., Baker City, OR 97814.
