

Elodie Ann Banks

Sept. 19, 1947 — Oct. 23, 2021

Pendleton

Elodie Ann Banks was born Sept. 19, 1947, in Prairie City, to parents Dexter and Mary Yokom. Elodie passed away at Sacred Heart Providence Hospital in Spokane, Saturday, Oct. 23, 2021.

Banks

Elodie attended school in Canyon City, Mt. Vernon, and for many years in Enterprise, where she graduated high school in 1965. She then attended Phagan's School of Beauty and continued her career as a hairdresser in Portland and Pendleton where she retired in 2017. She enjoyed gardening, camping trips to Boardman with family and friends, riding her bike to the park, and in her spare time taking care of her grand-dogs, and keeping a beautiful home.

Elodie married Jim Banks in Pendleton in 1973.

She is survived by her husband, Jim of 48 years; sister, Mary Ann Warnock; brother, Dexter (Sonny) Yokum and wife, Jan Yokom; daughter, Shauna Ryan; son, Ron Banks; stepsons, Kelly Banks and Patrick Ryan; grandchildren, Vance, Keenan, Meghan, Lexus, Trista, Kierssa, Cody, Brooke and Madi; and nine great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Dexter and Mary Yokom; and stepson, Scott Banks.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

OBITUARIES

Taryn Terese Minthorn

Aug. 27, 1978 — Oct. 22, 2021

Pendleton

Taryn Terese Minthorn, of Pendleton, passed away Friday, Oct. 22, 2021, in Pendleton. Taryn was born Aug. 27, 1978, to Marceline Quaempts-Hoptowit and Larry Minthorn. She was an enrolled member of the Yakama Nation.

Minthorn

She attended school in Pendleton and Athena, graduating from Weston-McEwen with the class of 1996. She was a letterman athlete in volleyball and basketball. She started playing sports young and knew every sport. For fun, she played city league softball. She watched "SportsCenter" daily and her favorite sport of all time was baseball. Her favorite teams were the Yankees, Mariners, Braves and Red Sox.

After high school, she attended Blue Mountain Community College for a time and worked at Wildhorse Resort & Casino. In 2007, she started work with the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation in human resources as a generalist in a trainee position. In 2010, she was hired as the tribe's benefits coordinator/records specialist where she worked until 2019. In her time there, she earned an accreditation to the Tribal Human Resources Professionals.

Taryn was a mother to four children, Chenoah, Jonathan, Jayden and Chaynne. All of her children are student-athletes and she was very proud of that. She coordinated games and practice schedules, AAU tournaments and everything else in between. She attended almost every single one of the kids' games. Many of the highlights of her life were wrapped up with sports and her children, including traveling to San Bernardino, California, to watch her daughter play in the Little League Softball World Series.

Taryn was truly beautiful, inside and out. Her friends and family will remember her for her honesty, humor, her activism for missing and murdered indigenous women, her fierce mama-bear spirit, and for always speaking her mind. She loved her family. She was a loyal and trusted friend to many and words cannot express how much she'll be missed.

Taryn is preceded in death by her mother, Marceline Quaempts-Hoptowit.

She is survived by her father, Larry Minthorn; stepfather, Anthony Hoptowit; sisters, Talia (Ryan) McLaughlin and Nicole Minthorn; brothers, Tysen (Beth) Minthorn, and Jesse Minthorn Sr.; companion, Jim Sproed; daughter, Chenoah (Brian) Begay of Kennewick; sons, Jonathan Begay and Jayden Minthorn; and daughter, Chaynne Spencer, all of Pendleton; granddaughter, Isabella Gutierrez of Kennewick; nephew, Breyon Minthorn, and nieces Dakota and Paisley McLaughlin all of Pendleton.

Dressing service will be Thursday, Oct. 28, 2021, at 9 a.m. at Burns Mortuary, 336 S.W. Dorian Ave., Pendleton. Burial will follow at Agency Cemetery.

Arrangements are with Burns Mortuary of Pendleton. Sign the online guestbook at burnsmortuary.com.
