DEAR ABBY

A marriage sours as the details spill out in public

JEANNE PHILLIPS ADVICE

Dear Abby: My husband of 16 years has been airing our dirty laundry to anyone who will listen...

you will be able to prevent him from fleeing you. Please accept my sympathy.

Dear Abby: I have a good friend who wants to help everyone. She has been in a relationship with a man for 25 years...

I have asked my husband to keep our business between us and not discuss our personal lives with others...

ised marriage, she hangs on.

The son is a drug addict and not supposed to be around the grandson, but everyone enables everyone.

The home we live in is mine — I paid in full for it before I met him, and it is all I have.

Her boyfriend is retired now and has a lot of money, and his house is paid off.

Afraid And Confused In California

Dear Afraid: Do not wait for things to "calm down." In light of what your husband has threatened, it is extremely important that you start talking to lawyers...

Dear Involved: Yup! The "boyfriend" has her exactly where he wants her — as a source of free labor and with no guarantee about her future.
