Gospel quartet celebrates in song

UMATILLA COUNTY — The Liberty Quartet is swinging through the area on a concert tour, including stops in Milton-Freewater and Hermiston.

Celebrating more than 25 years in the ministry, the Southern gospel group hails from Idaho. The free performances are Sunday, Nov. 14:

- 9 a.m., Milton-Freewater Community Center, 109 N.E. Fifth Ave.
- 6 p.m., Hermiston Church of the Nazarene, 1520 W. Orchard Ave.

In addition to love offerings taken at each performance, merchandise will be available for purchase. For more about Liberty Quartet, visit www.libertyquartet.com.

SAGE Center to hold Ladies Night

BOARDMAN — The SAGE Center is offering women an evening of shopping, sipping wine, visiting with friends and storewide discounts.

Ladies Night at the SAGE Store is Thursday, Nov. 18, 6-8 p.m. at 101 Olson Road, Boardman. There is no admission charge. Everyone in attendance will be entered into a gift basket drawing.

Those planning to attend are invited to come early for the Boardman Chamber of Commerce's Chamber After 5 Networking event, so stop by early for some wine and cheese and networking.

Altrusa awards ASTRA scholarships

PENDLETON — Two ASTRA members of District Twelve Altrusa International were selected to receive ASTRA International scholarships. They won at the international level on their own merits.

Schreier

The High School Scholarship of $2,000 was awarded to Sidney Schreier of Pendleton. Schreier, a 2021 Pendleton High School graduate, intends to attend Queens University in Kingston, Ontario, Canada, to study pre-med. She was the vice president of the local ASTRA organization and chaired the ASTRA service committee. She also was involved in numerous school and community activities during her high school years.

Camille dela Cruz of Roseburg won the $1,000 award.

ASTRA is an international community service organization for youth sponsored by local Altrusa Clubs.
