Art centers offer locally crafted items during the holiday season

'ART OF THE GIFT' OPEN NOW IN PENDLETON

PENDLETON — The Pendleton Center for the Arts is connecting shoppers directly with the region's artists and craftspeople with "The Art of the Gift" exhibit that runs through Dec. 31. This year marks the 20th year of The Art of the Gift, and PCA Director Roberta Lavadour said the event is known for bringing to Pendleton some of the best functional and wearable art made in the Northwest.

"It is designed to provide access to gifts that are out of the ordinary, and many of the featured items are one-of-a-kind," she said.

In addition to shopping, which will be available until the end of December, guests of all ages can take part in drop-in, make-and-take projects each Saturday.

The art center is open Tuesday through Friday from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. and Saturday from noon-4 p.m. More information is available by calling 541-278-9201 or online at pendletonarts.org.

FIND UNIQUE ORNAMENTS AT CROSSROADS CARNEGIE ART CENTER

BAKER CITY — The Christmas at Crossroads Ornament Expo is on now through Dec. 24 at Crossroads Carnegie Art Center, 2020 Auburn Ave. The center's 12-foot Christmas tree is decorated with handcrafted ornaments.
