Livestock Club, several gun clubs, tennis, basketball, and with his artistic ability, he drew most of the signs for the school games and helped make several of the homecoming floats in the family garage.

His first car was a Pontiac, which he repainted candy apple red and white, fueling his love of showing cars. As a teenager, he also took apart and rebuilt his first motorcycle in the family living room.

Don graduated from Pilot Rock High School in 1969. Upon graduation, he attended Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton, Oregon. Don met the love of his life, Debra (Toronto) Peck, while she was working during the summer of 1970. The two were married after college in 1972, and Pendleton became their lifelong home. They had two girls, Julie (Peck) Rendon and Jackie (Peck) Garton, who were the light of Don's eyes. They enjoyed rafting, camping, snowmobiling, and attending the girls' sporting and horse showing events.

After college, Don initially worked for Pioneer Title Company, followed by 11 years as a loan officer for the Department of Veterans' Affairs, and finally retired from Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution (EOCI) after 20 years in 2009. Don made many lifelong friends working at EOCI and he was known for his quick wit, his infectious smile, and his kind and compassionate spirit.

After Don's retirement, he spent his days socializing with his friends for morning coffee, attending his grandchildren's sporting events, playing with his great-grandson, and camping with his family at Harris Park in Milton-Freewater and riding his ATV at the Morrow County OHV Park.

Don is survived by an uncle, George Peck; his sister, Sharon (Peck) Brown and Larry Brown; his wife, Debra of 49 years; his two daughters, seven grandchildren, one great-grandson, and numerous nephews and cousins, and their children.
