

Inland Northwest Musicians present Handel's 'Messiah'

Go! staff

HERMISTON, WESTON — Inland Northwest Musicians will present Handel's "Messiah," directed by R. Lee Friese, in two different Oregon communities in December.

On Saturday, Dec. 11, the performance will be at the Hermiston Community Center. The next day, Sunday, Dec. 12, a concert will be at the Memorial Hall in Weston.

Both concerts will begin at 4 p.m. Masks are required. Concerts are presented at no charge to the public with donations accepted at the door. A reception will follow both performances.

"Messiah" was written in 1741 by German composer George Frideric Handel. The Eastern Oregon performances will focus on "Part One" of the piece, which contains the prophecies as well as the addition of the "Amen Chorus" and the "Hallelujah Chorus."

The Inland Northwest Chorale will be accompanied by the Inland

Northwest String Orchestra and a custom-made harpsichord played by Myrna VanCleave of Pendleton. Soloists will be RaNiel Dunn, soprano, Pendleton; Mary Finney, alto, Pendleton; Philip Ruud, tenor, Pendleton; and Donald Dugan, bass, Umatilla.

Principal musicians for the string ensemble are Alice Massey, violin, Pendleton; Emma Jones, violin, La Grande; Sue Friese, viola, Athena; Jane Bane, cello, Enterprise; and Brook Collins, bass, Kennewick, Washington.

Both concerts are being dedicated in memory of Harvey and Bernice Foreman, who passed away in October 2021. Harvey was a charter member and a past board president of the organization. He had also been the bass soloist for several performances of "Messiah," and Bernice served the organization as reception host and house manager many times over the years.

Founded in 1999, Inland Northwest Musicians is composed of volunteer musicians from throughout Northeastern Oregon and Southeastern Washington. INWM performance ensembles include the Inland Northwest Orchestra, Inland Northwest Chorale and Willow Creek Symphony, all of which present concerts throughout the region in communities of all sizes. Admission to all concerts is free of charge, funded by corporate sponsors, grants, local concert sponsorships and individual donations. For more information, visit inlandnorthwestmusicians.com.
