

ENTERTAINMENT, HOLIDAY MARKET PLANNED AT HQ

LA GRANDE — HQ, a live music venue in downtown La Grande, continues offering open stage time on Thursdays from 7-10 p.m.

“Sign up at the door for a 10-minute stage time slot,” said HQ co-owner Chris Jennings. “Bring your new music, writing, interpretive dance or whatever entertainment you’re presenting to HQ for Thursday nights open microphone art-based performances.”

Also on the HQ calendar for Dec. 18 is the Alternative Arts Holiday Market, a holiday spectacular from 9 a.m.-3 p.m., he said. Multiple local arts and crafts vendors will display their holiday hand-crafted gifts, and adult beverages will be available. Visit HQ on Facebook for details on the arts and craft vendors participating at this event.

HQ is at 112 Depot St. For more details, email lagrandehq@gmail.com or call 541-962-5799 during business hours.

TWO ACTORS, 22 CHARACTERS IN 'A TUNA CHRISTMAS'

BAKER CITY — Eastern Oregon Regional Theatre will present “A Tuna Christmas” Dec. 17-19, at 7 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 3 p.m. Sunday at EORT, 2101 Main St.

Tickets are $15 adults, $13

EORT members, and $8 for students. Purchase tickets at www.easternoregonregional-theatre.com, call 541-523-9652 or buy at the box office before the show. The comedy features only two actors — Savannah Brown and Marie Taylor — who each portray 11 different characters. Abby Dennis is the director, and Addison Collard is assistant director.

THE GRINCH STEALS MOVIE NIGHT AT SAGE CENTER

BOARDMAN — Movie Night at the SAGE Center will help jump-start your holiday spirit by screening “How the Grinch Stole Christmas” on Friday, Dec. 17, at 6 p.m. at 101 Olson Road. The cost is $5 per person and includes entry, popcorn and bottled water. Children younger than 5 are free. The PG-rated flick features Jim Carrey as the Grinch. For more information, call 541-481-7243 or visit www.visitsage.com.

FREE CHRISTMAS DINNER PROVIDED IN PENDLETON

PENDLETON — The Pendleton Community Action Coalition, Salvation Army and CAPECO will provide a free community Christmas dinner for the Pendleton and CTUIR communities on Saturday, Dec. 25, from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. at the Pendleton Salvation Army. Tax-deductible donations to support this project can be sent to CAPECO, 721 SE Third St., Suite D, Pendleton 97801, or made at www.capeco-works.org/donate.html. Include “Christmas Dinner” on all donations.

END 2021 WITH A MURDER MYSTERY AT THE UNDERGROUND

PENDLETON — The Pendleton Underground will ring in the new year with a murder mystery dinner event beginning at 7 p.m. on Dec. 31 at 31 SW Emigrant Ave. Tickets are limited to 55, and the event is for ages 21 and older. The cost is $90 per person, or $75 per person for a couple or larger group. To make reservations, call 541-276-0730.

The 3rd Annual Crossroads Carnegie Art Center “Oktoberfest”

We would like to thank the following individuals, businesses and community organization for their help and support of our 3rd Annual Oktoberfest Drive-Thru Dinner and Virtual Auction.

We were so excited that so many people participated in the event, from near and far, to help Crossroads fulfill our mission:

The mission of the Crossroads Carnegie Art Center, Inc., a 501(c)3 non-profit founded in 1963, is to create opportunities for the entire community to be engaged, inspired, and transformed by the arts through participation in classes, workshops, exhibits, mentorships, and partnerships - A welcoming place where people meet and the arts speak.
