BAKER CITY — Here's a look at what you can find during the First Friday art walk on Friday, Jan. 7, in downtown Baker City.

CROSSROADS CARNEGIE ART CENTER

2020 Auburn Ave.

The annual Student Art Show will be held in the upstairs gallery at Crossroads Carnegie Art Center, beginning with a reception during First Friday, 5:30-8 p.m. The show runs through Jan. 28 and features work by Baker High School art students.

Alyson Spiering, community art director, said the work includes "a unique take on the concept of a self-portrait, paired with a linguistic explanation of their personal interpretation, 3D ceramic pieces that will include a 'hybrid species' project, watercolor work and even jewelry."

Crossroads is open Monday through Saturday 10 a.m.-5 p.m. To learn more, visit www.cross- roads-arts.org or the center's page on Facebook.

ROYAL ARTISAN

1912 Main St.

Royal Artisan will be showing a retrospective of paintings and sculptures by San Francisco artist Laura La Foret Lengyel. Collector Jim Bay will be available First Friday 5-8 p.m. to answer questions about the artist and her work.

SUNN JUICE + DECOR

1917 Main St.

Sunn will stay open late for First Friday and feature works by painter Mary Davies Kerns.

SWEET WIFE BAKING

2028 Main St.

The Two Drink Minimum Art Gallery inside Sweet Wife Baking will present "The Magnificent Frigate Bird," a show by Dale Beatty. Featuring his tropical soulmate in two dimensions, this show is a departure from his three-dimensional folk art.

These paintings are heavily inspired by his life in, around and under the coastal waters of Florida, Maine and Mexico. He now lives in Halfway. Visitors can meet the artist 5-8 p.m. on First Friday. Sweets, savories and handcrafted cocktails will be available for purchase.

ANDERS GALLERY

1802 Main St.

Enjoy art and live music on First Friday at Anders Gallery with D'Club L'Eveque starting at 6 p.m. The music style is Americana with songs and entertainment featuring duets with Debbie Friedman and John Woodard.

BAKER HERITAGE MUSEUM

Every month, the Baker Heritage Museum is having a pop-up exhibit at a downtown location. January's display of typewriters will be at Betty's Books, 1813 Main St., during the art walk.

OTHER LOCATIONS

Other businesses in downtown Baker City often stay open late on First Friday, so be sure to explore.
