

DEAR ABBY

Wife gets no support in dealing with MIL

DEAR ABBY: I need some advice regarding my mother-in-law. She has hated me since the first time she met me because I'm not from the country but from "the city."

She also makes up lies about me. She claims I have STDs, spend all her son's money, etc. She even spread a rumor that I wouldn't allow her at our wedding.

Our child and I aren't even allowed in her home. We have to sit in the car. She acts like our child doesn't exist, but she has pictures of her other two grandchildren on Facebook and drives to see them almost weekly. My husband sees nothing wrong with her behavior and says he "won't take sides."

PEEVED IN PENNSYLVANIA

DEAR PEEVED: Please accept my sympathy for your situation. While your husband refuses to recognize there is anything wrong with his mother's behavior,

Because you can't change your husband or his witch of a mother, and you made no mention of leaving the marriage, you will simply have to adjust to it.

mom, rather than sitting for hours in the car. Even better, arrange "other" transportation for your husband.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 24-year-old woman who has been in a relationship with a man for seven years. "Ken" is 27 years older than I am. (I pursued him.) I love him, but I have always been slightly confused about my relationship with him, and he knows this.

He's a good, honest man, and I enjoy our relationship. We get along great, have a lot in common and make a great team.

DAYS GONE BY

100 years ago — 1922

In the days when Pendleton's Round-Up was in its infancy, a cowboy who called the world his home and who led the life of a roving gambler rode in the arena at the big out-door show.

50 years ago — 1972

Women's lib came to the Umatilla School District meeting on two different counts Thursday night. While trying to select budget committee members, board member Helen Howard pointed out that women are generally by-passed for the budget committee.

appointments were made to fill the two positions, but the prospects are that at least one of the appointees will be a woman. Also at the meeting, ex-officio student board member Ron Starker told the board that girls in high school are complaining they have to take physical education in order to participate in athletics, but boys don't.

25 years ago — 1997

When Mr. Smith went to Washington, he didn't go alone. A host of Pendleton people enjoyed a whirlwind visit to the nation's capitol for the swearing-in ceremony of Gordon Smith, the newest Oregon senator.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

On Jan. 15, 2009, US Airways Capt. Chesley "Sully" Sullenberger ditched his Airbus 320 in the Hudson River after a flock of birds disabled both engines; all 155 people aboard survived.

In 1862, the U.S. Senate confirmed President Abraham Lincoln's choice of Edwin M. Stanton to be the new Secretary of War, replacing Simon Cameron.

In 1892, the original rules of basketball, devised by James Naismith, were published for the first time in Springfield, Massachusetts, where the game originated.

In 1929, civil rights leader Martin Luther King, Jr. was born in Atlanta.

In 1943, work was completed on the Pentagon, the headquarters of the U.S. Department of War (now Defense).

In 1967, the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League defeated the Kansas City Chiefs of the American Football League 35-10 in the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, retroactively known as Super Bowl I.

In 1973, President Richard M. Nixon announced the suspension of all U.S. offensive action in North Vietnam, citing progress in peace negotiations.

In 1976, Sara Jane Moore was sentenced to life in prison for her attempt on the life of President Gerald R. Ford in San Francisco. (Moore was released on the last day of 2007.)

In 1981, the police drama series "Hill Street Blues" premiered on NBC.
