

PUBLIC SAFETY

MONDAY, FEB. 7

8:51 a.m. — A caller asked the Morrow County Sheriff's Office to check on the welfare of a woman in Irrigon after a voicemail message on Feb. 5 that sounded like a woman crying hysterically and a male yelling in the background.

10:14 a.m. — A caller who had called previously about the same issue, at Clean Spot, 630 Switzler Ave., Umatilla, reported the same Chihuahua that has been running loose for weeks is now inside his building.

10:30 a.m. — A resident on West Ridgeway Avenue, Hermiston, reported the theft of multiple packages from in front of her house.

4:16 p.m. — A caller who owns a vacant house on Northeast North Street, Hermiston, reported two males are inside the house and should not be there.

4:38 p.m. — A caller at Motel 6, 620 S.W. Tutuilla Creek Road, Pendleton, reported a youth threw a rock and broke his window. Police took a report.

6:40 p.m. — A woman asked to speak to a Boardman police officer about someone posting a video of her on Facebook. She said she had a verbal confrontation with a female earlier in public and that person is harassing her and her daughter. Law enforcement made contact and advised her of options.

8:19 p.m. — Pendleton police responded to Blue Mountain Village Apartments, 2700 S.W. Goodwin Ave., on a 911 call about a domestic disturbance and made an arrest.

8:52 p.m. — Police responded to a call reporting a domestic disturbance on Sunshine Lane in Hermiston.

9:04 p.m. — Morrow County sheriff's deputies responded to Columbia River Ranch, 70362 Kunze Lane, Boardman, for an intoxicated woman who was causing a disturbance and trying to fight employees. Deputies arrested the woman for second-degree disorderly conduct.

10:07 p.m. — Pendleton police responded to Oxford Suites, 2400 S.W. Court Place, on a report of a disturbance and made an arrest.

TUESDAY, FEB. 8

12:38 a.m. — A Heppner resident asked for a Morrow County sheriff's deputy to contact her because her ex-partner keeps harassing and contacting her. She said he is in Chicago and left a message threatening to return to Heppner.

1:52 a.m. — Police responded to a report of shots being fired on East Loop Road in Stanfield. The caller reported someone shooting a rifle behind the reservoir. Police looked but did not find anyone.

2:27 a.m. — Police responded to a call reporting a domestic disturbance on North Glendening Street, Stanfield.

1:52 p.m. — Pendleton police received a report of the theft of several items from a property on the 400 block of Northwest 15th Street. Police took a report.

1:58 p.m. — Police responded to a call about a domestic disturbance, on Chuckhole Lane, Milton-Freewater.

3:57 p.m. — Pendleton police responded to the 4200 block of Southwest Vista Avenue on a 911 report of an assault.

4:39 p.m. — An Irrigon resident reported her ex-husband just contacted her and she would like the Morrow County Sheriff's Office to tell him to stop. A sheriff's sergeant contacted the man and advised him not to contact his ex-wife and trespassed him.

5:42 p.m. — Pendleton police responded to High Desert Cannabis, 341 S.W. 20th St., for a male who was yelling and spitting at people.

7:35 p.m. — A 911 caller reported observing suspicious activity on West Gettman Road, Hermiston, where she said a car drove by into a field across the street, then into her field and then onto a neighbor's trailer.

9:27 p.m. — A resident on Northwest Oregon Avenue, Irrigon, reported a burglary at her house.

Creagh Brennan Hawes

March 28, 1933 - February 2, 2022

Creagh Hawes, 88, died in Sherwood, Oregon, of natural causes on Wednesday, Feb. 2, 2022. Creagh was born March 28, 1933, in Pendleton, Oregon, to Joseph Patrick Brennan and Creagh Inge Brennan. She earned a bachelor's of education from Oregon State University and a master's in education and administration from University of Oregon.

She married Robert R. Hawes on Aug. 6, 1955, in Pendleton, and they enjoyed 53 years of marriage.

Creagh was an active member of St. Mary's Catholic Church. She was involved in many community organizations, including the board of the Oregon East Symphony. She was a member of the BJ chapter of PEO in Pendleton and chapter DQ in Corvallis. Because of her outstanding community service she was named citizen of the year in 2003 in Pendleton. Her community will long benefit from her many contributions.

Creagh lived life to the fullest. She was passionate about children and education. She always had time for her many friends. Her family was the center of her universe, and her daughters, grandchildren and great-grandchildren will always remember her hugs, story time and love. She will be greatly missed, but her legacy lives on.

Creagh was predeceased by her parents, Joseph and Creagh Brennan. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, Bob; her brother, Patrick; and her sister, Gregory. She is survived by her daughters, Shannon Hawes of Copenhagen Denmark, Creagh (Mike) Schoen of Sherwood, Oregon, and Shelley (Casey) Denson of Corvallis, Oregon. Creagh is survived by five grandchildren, Courtney, Christoffer, Nicholas, Riley and Meghan, and two great-grandchildren, Reagan and Mack.

Creagh has requested a private family celebration. In lieu of flowers, please send a donation to the charity of your choice.

September 24, 1936 - February 5, 2022

Lynn R. Liebe, 85, passed away Feb. 5, 2022, at a care facility in Vancouver, Washington. She was born to Ray and Pauline (Boyd) Fossum in Baker City, Oregon. She enjoyed her childhood in Baker City then moved to Hermiston, Oregon, in her junior year of high school, graduating in 1954. In her senior year, she and her tennis partner placed third in state and she also participated in Pep Club.

After graduating high school, she was employed at the U.S. Army Ordnance Depot. About this time, she met the love of her life, Bill Liebe, and they married on 4-4-55, April 4, 1955, in Hermiston. They then moved to Pilot Rock in June 1955, where they started their life together. She was a homemaker, self-taught seamstress and loved to crochet afghans and quilting blankets.

She worked at Bowers Market, First National Bank, Georgia Pacific and ending her career at United States Gypsum/International Paper, and after 25 years retiring as office manager in 1988.

She and Bill enjoyed square dancing, teaching Bill how to play tennis, bridge and in 1970 they learned how to play golf. During her golf career she had five holes in one! She and Bill also won the Birch Creek Invitational Golf Tournament. They spent many years playing golf with their Canadian group and their BLT&M friends at Eagle Crest and many other locations traveling the Northwest. Also, playing bridge with a group of friends for 25 years. Another hobby was her yard and flower gardens, earning several yard of the month awards. Her greatest joy was supporting her children and grandchildren in school events. Many a cookies were eaten and shared, afghans crocheted and many life issues were resolved while traveling to children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren events.

She was a member of the Pilot Rock Jaycee's as a member of the Booster Club, she co-hosted the OSAA Class 2A State Basketball Tournament Cheerleader luncheons at the Pendleton Country Club, treasurer of the Community Presbyterian Church, city council for many years, member of the women's board and the first woman on the men's board for the Pendleton Country Club.

She was preceded in death by her parents, sister, Loy Harsin Smith, brothers-in-law, Wayne Harsin, Jim Smith and great-grandson, Brody Bensel.

She is survived by husband, Bill; daughters, Loraine (Glenn) Greene, Pilot Rock, Oregon, Brenda (Kelly) Bensel, Pilot Rock, Oregon; son, Bo (Leontina) Liebe, Camas, Washington; grandchildren, Tyler, Rachael, Justin, Ryan, Jordan and Parker; great-grandchildren, Matthew, Issac, Drew, Bryce, Maise, Abby, Bentley and Paisley.
