Douglas Raymond Marlatt

September 25, 1969-February 20, 2022

Douglas Raymond Marlatt entered this life on September 25, 1969, in Pendleton, Oregon the son of Wilma Lee Bothwell and Wesley Virgil Marlatt Sr. of Heppner. He entered eternal life on February 20, 2022, from his home in Umatilla, Oregon. Graveside service for Douglas will be held in Heppner at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery, at 11 a.m., March 5, 2022.

He was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Umatilla River Ward, Hermiston Oregon Stake. He grew up in Heppner, graduating from Heppner High School in 1988, where he played football, and loved learning. He was a life-long learner and was an avid history buff. His friends and family would joke about Douglas being quicker than Google in giving an answer and was thus dubbed Doogle, for his quick mind and accurate memory. Douglas will be most remembered for his infectious laugh and cunning sense of humor. His nieces and nephews looked to him as the cool uncle who always brought great fireworks and loved to join them in playing video games. He loved bringing smiles to peoples. Whenever he saw something that he thought would bring joy, he would make sure they received it. Those who loved Douglas, remember him as a kind and giving soul, with the biggest heart, who served everyone. Every family member has fond stories of how he would go out of his way to make their lives easier through his loving service. Douglas was a member of the IBEW local 112 as a material handler. He is remembered as a hard worker who was relentless in accomplishing difficult tasks and staying until the job was complete. He was loved by his fellow co-workers for his wit and will be missed. Survivors include his father, Wesley V. Marlatt Sr. of Finley, Washington, sister, Melody Marlatt of Santa Ana, California, sister and brother-in-law Rosanna and Joseph Vandacar of Umatilla, brother and sister-in-law Wesley and Sarah-Anne Marlatt of Irrigon, sister and brother-in-law, Lovena and Lee Clinkenbeard of La Grande, sister and brother-in-law, Starla and Larry Lozier of Finley, Washington, sister Alisha Looslie of Pendleton, and 10 adoring nieces and nephews, and 7 great nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his mother, Wilma Marlatt. Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements. You may sign the online condolence book at www.sweeneymortuary.com

Barry Charles Beyeler

June 10, 1956 – February 15, 2022

Barry Beyeler was born in Norfolk, Nebraska, June 10, 1956. He grew up mostly in Nebraska and Colorado, but moved frequently as his father pursued his career. Barry always desired a place to plant his roots — to call a home — and a community to be a part of. In 1978, Boardman, Oregon, became that place.

Then in December 1980, Jim Thompson, city manager, hired Barry as a backhoe operator for the city Public Works Department. Five city managers, 13 mayors, numerous city councils and 42 years later, he was still serving the city of Boardman as the community development director. Karen Pettigrew, current city manager, said she knew Barry all those years to be “a faithful, dedicated employee of the city of Boardman.” During his tenure, Barry served not only his community, but the state of Oregon as well. He was a long time member of the American Water Works Association and League of Oregon Cities. He served as a volunteer for the Oregon Hanford Cleanup Board (2005-2008). In 2008, Barry was appointed to the U.S. Department of Energy’s Hanford Advisory Board. From 2010-2019, he was in the service of the Energy Facilities Siting Council (EFSC) during which he was appointed vice chair (2013-2015) and chair (2015-2019) by the governor of the state of Oregon. Todd Cornett, assistant director of siting at Oregon Department of Energy wrote he worked closely with Barry on EFSC and will miss him greatly. “Even after his time on EFSC, I spoke with him at least monthly.” What Barry loved most about living in Boardman was being part of a community that was like family. Over the years he participated in all things “community” from being on the volunteer EMT and fire departments to numerous public events, especially Fourth of July. Lynn Prag, co-publisher of the North Morrow County Times, wrote, “Barry was involved in everything to do with improving life in Boardman, and he was always smiling and so cheerful about it. He enjoyed small town life, from playing softball to a front-row seat at Music in the Park. He was so enthusiastic about everything, and we will miss him.” Barry could often be found at high school sporting events, even after his daughter’s graduation in 1995. Barry was a caring, stubborn, compassionate and political man with a deep love of country, community, nature and family. He enjoyed many hobbies — sports fan, poet, amateur geologist, singer, historian and so many others. His greatest love was being a father to Brandy and grandfather to Tyler. Barry Charles Beyeler passed away suddenly on Tuesday, Feb. 15, 2022. He is survived by his daughter and son-in-law, Brandy and Jerod Alexander, grandson, Tyler Alexander, stepmother, Beverly Beyeler, brother and sister-in-law, Craig and Lori Beyeler, sister, Malia Beyeler, stepsister and brother-in-law, Suzy and Mike Johnson, stepsister, Luanne Smith, and multiple nieces, nephews, aunts and cousins. He was preceded in death by his mother, Joyce (Jorgensen) Beyeler, father, Robert Beyeler, and sister-in-law, Charlotte. A public service is to be scheduled for April 2022 with date, time and location to be provided separately. In lieu of flowers or cards, donations can be made to one of the following: the Barry Beyeler Memorial Fund c/o Brandy Alexander at any Banner Bank location, any organization supporting military members and their families, and/or a donation of blood to the American Red Cross.
